STATE TO EXPLORE 'FRESH TAXATION'

Bangalore, 3

The State Government had been impressed of their duty to explore fresh taxation measures by the Finance Commission, said the Commission's Chairman Sri K Santhanam here, yesterday.

Addressing a Press Conference, Sri Santhanam said that the Commission had almost concluded its deliberations and would submit its report to the Government by the end of August this year.

Referring to the discussions the Commission had with the State Government, the Chairman said that the difficulties of Mysore with particular reference to the reorganisation of the State had been represented to them by the Government.

Replying to a question, he stated that the solution to the problem of levelling up the salaries of the State Governments' employees so as to reduce the disparity between the Central and State Government employees, depended much upon the capacity of the State Governments to meet the additional expenditure.

Adverting to the tax structure in the country, Sri Santhanam said the tax burden was certainly not heavy in that only seven to eight per cent. of the national income was being taxed and there was plenty of scope for further taxation.

During its sittings here, the Commission also met the representatives of the Gokhale Institute of Public Affairs and Sri P. Kodanda Rao of the Servants of India Society.

The Handloom industry in the coutry has made much progress since the past four years.

The Government of India appointed the All India Handloom Board in October 1952 to advise the Government on schemes for the development of the industry. The Board envisaged schemes under three broad lines: organisational, marketing and technical.

Out of the estimated 28,80,000 handlooms in the country, 6,82,083 were reported to be in co-operative field in 1953 and at present is now round about 11 lakhs. This was due to financial assistance given to the weavers. The Board also put up schemes for establishing emporia and sales depots. A net work of 1300 sales depots have been established with 33 mobile vans on the very doors of the consumers.

Of late much interest has been created in the American market.

The industry by 1958_59, is expected to increase its production by 700 million yards. In 1955 the production stood at 1473 million yards and at present at about 1800 million yards.

From September 1953 upto March 1957, the Government of India sanctioned Rs. 17.7 crores for the development of this industry.

The exports of handloom cloth in 1956 totalled 59,786,000 yards, valued at Rs. 8.66 crores.

The handloom industry provides employment to over 20 lakhs weavers and suports more than one crore of our population.

KANNADA MUST OCCUPY THE FIRST PLACE

-PUTTAPPA

Delivering the Presidential address at the 39th Kannada Sahitya Sammelan at Hubli yesterday, Dr. K. V. Puttappa, Vice-Chancellor of Mysore University, observed that Kannada language must occupy the first place in the State for educational and administrative purposes.

Referring to the question of medium of instruction Dr. Puttappa said that nothing was farther from truth than the argument of some that the English medium of instruction should be retained on the ground that the Kannada language had not become ripe and mature enough to be the media in higher education. On the contrary, he said, Kannada literature had made such an all-round progress during the past few decades that any literature of the world could be proud of such an achievement.

Deprecating the tendency of some educationists, who, he said, had given a sort of "artificial importance" to the English language, the Vice Chancellor said that unless this sophisticated outlook was cast away, they could not expect the country to march towards progress.

Adverting to the large scale failures in the present type of examinations and likening them to "lotteries," the speaker asserted that the burden of the foreign language on the young children had become so heavy that they were unable to cope with the situation, with the result, our examinations had become cheap "memory tests" and "games of chance."

Dr. Puttappa was sure that the introduction of Kannada medium would go a long way in treading the country on the path of progress and prosperity. He also said that children should not be made to bear the burden of learning a number of languages.

Inaugurating the Sammelan, Chief Minister Sri S. Nijalingappa said that a sense of unity among the people was essential for the all-round growth of literature. He assured that as in the past, financial aid would be forthcoming in an increased measure for literary and cultural activities in future also from the Government.

NATIONALISATION OF EDUCATION WRONG

Speaking on the Kerala Government's move to nationalise text-books, Acharya Vinoba Bhave has said that nationalisation of education was wrong in principle.

Addressing his prayer audience, he said at Ernakulam that education should be left free from State control if there should be independent and intelligent thinking among the public in the country.

Any restrictive form of teaching in a particular line under the direction of a Government would stunt the growth of the individual on the one hand and reduce the status of the teacher to a mere paid worker instead of a moulder of public citizenship on the other, he said. In such a set up the teacher would also become a handle to create the minds of pupils according to the pattern of the Government of the day, he added.

NO HIGH INDUSTRIALISATION UNDER THE BANYAN TREE

Dr. C.P. Ramaswamy Aiyer

Mysore, 11

Presiding over the golden jubilee celebrations of the Mysore Bar Association at Crawford Hall here last evening, Dr. C. P. Ramaswami Aiyer observed: "No country, no civilisation has a right to make profit over the propagation of justice". He stressed that the administration of any country should be so conducted that justice was denied to nobody.

Referring to the cry for reversion to Panchayat Raj, he said that in his opinion they, in India, could not have that high industrial and economic development under the banyan tree.

Today, Dr. Ramaswamy Aiyer continued, the writ procedure had grown to such enormous proportions that judges complained that they had no time to dispose off ordinary cases. The writ was an agency to vindicate personal rights. But unfortunately now, writs were often results of hasty, incompetent legislation. He strongly pleaded for the drafting department being placed under the Central Ministry of Justice.

Adverting to the system of juniors, the speaker said that the institution of juniors was indispensable for the lawyer to work efficiently. This was an age of specialisation and there was a race among young men to be trained in new departments of legal activity, and for this specialisation, juniors were most fitted.

Dr. Ramaswamy Aiyer also stressed the importance of creating an All-India Bar Council for maintaining the highest standard of professional integrity and ethics.

Earlier, Sri H. Subba Rao, President of the Association, welcomed and Sri N. Nagarajappa, Secretary, presented a report touching the activities of the Association.

NECESSITY FOR ALL–INDIA BAR COUNCIL STRESSED

STATE LAWYERS' MEET INAUGURATED

Mysore, 10

Inaugurating the two-day State Lawyers' Conference at Crawford Hall here this morning, Justice Sri Nittoor Srinivasa Rao observed that an All-India Bar Council was a necessary complement to a federal judicial structure and only its establishment could achieve the total integration of the Bar of this country.

Sri Srinivasa Rao regretted that legislative implementation should not have been given to the recommendations of the All-India Bar Council Committee presided over by the present Chief Justice of India, though several years had elapsed since its report was published.

Adverting to the exchange of ideas between the lawyers of the various parts of the country, the speaker said that more than any other profession it was necessary that members of this profession should cultivate live contacts with fellow practitioners everywhere and keep their minds open to new ideas.

Stating that it was a matter of gratification to note that the Conference was the first of its kind where members of the profession from all over the new State of Mysore had assembled, he assured the delegates on behalf of himself and his colleagues in the High Court that the views of the Conference on all matters would have the most sympathetic and careful consideration.

Sri V. A. Mujumdar, prominent Advocate of Belgaum, in his Presidential address, said that lawyers represented the best talents of the land on account of their mental discipline, logical thinking, ability and experience. In spite of this, he said, it was a sad thing to find that they were the most maligned and were often stamped as "parasites." There was no element of truth in this accusation, he said, and added that it was one of the noblest professions and they, the practitioners, should do their best to practise it in a noble way without tarnishing its fair name.

Referring to the lots of a large number of new entrants in the legal profession, Sri Mujumdar said that unless the new entrant was equipped with versatile intellect and was capable of understanding human nature and easily judgement, hts condition would not improve.

The President wanted all Law Graduates to remember that this was a profession in which the new entrant would have to wait for some years before he could fell his ground and he invited the young juniors' attention to the fact that in foreign countries, hardly one-fourth of the Law Graduates of those called to the Bar, actually took to practice. The rest, he said, joined business, trade, commerce or some other jobs.

Concluding, Sri Mujumdar said that they, as lawyers, should be fearless in the honest expression of their opinions, if it served the interests of the public.

Earlier, Sri H. Subba Rao, Chairman of the Reception Committee, welcomed.

His Highness the Governor, Chief Justice Sri R. Venkataramiah and Madras Chief Justice Sri Rajamannar had sent messages wishing the Conference all success.

Over 800 delegates from all over the State are participating in the Conference.

PAK POLICE HARASS INDIAN OFFICERS

Two senior officers of the Indian Deputy High Commission in Lahore were arrested on Tuesday last and kept in police custody for over seven hours, it is stated. The two officers Messrs Govind H. Seth and M. B. C. Rajan had gone for some shopping with three Indian railway officers under training at the U.N. Railway centre at Lahore.

When the party were at a shop, a police constable asked them to leave their car at a distance They replied that they would be leaving the shop in a few minutes. More constables arrived at the shop and took the officer into custody and marched them off to the police station after subjecting them to insulting behaviour despite the officers disclosing their identity. At the police station they were put under arrest and handcuffed on a charge of causing nuisance in a public place while in a drunken state. Later, they were taken to the hospital and it was found out that they were not under the influence of liquor.

After a lapse of four hours the other Indian Mission officers traced them and produced their identity documents but the police were quite. They were let off the next morning. India has lodged a strong protest with Pakistan against the action of the police in arresting and harassing the Indian officers. The protest has been handed over to the Foreign Office at Karachi.

DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT IN KERALA

MINISTER REITERATES POLICY

Mysore, 14

Sri K.C. George, Food Minister of Kerala, reiterated here yesterday that the aim of the Communist Government in Kerala was to establish a fully democratic government by vesting more powers with the people.

Referring to the ushering in of the Communist Party into power in Kerala, he said that a revolutionary party had come into power in a "non-revolutionary situation." They had taken charge of the Government which was going to be democratic under the Constitution, he added.

Sri George was speaking at a reception given to him and Prof. Thacker at the Central Food Technological Research Institute here.

Stating that Kerala had now become a centre of political attraction, the Minister said that millions of eyes all over the world were looking at them with the expectation of something spectacular. But, he added, they did not propose to do anything spectacular.

Pointing out that the previous Governments in the State did not come up to the expectations of the people, he said that where they failed, the present Government would try to hit the goal.

Adverting to the purpose of his visit to Mysore, the Minister said that he was interested in exploring how far the macaroni products processed at the Food Research Institute could substitute for boiled rice, which was the staple food of Kerala. The food situation in the State, he said, was very serious and the prices had gone up very much, and under such circumstances,no responsible government could keep quiet.This problem of food, he was sure, would be solved if the people accepted macaroni products.

In conclusion, Sri George congratulated the people of Mysore on their success in the struggle for the formation of Karnataka, and said that the relationship between Kerala and Mysore would strengthen and help both the States to progress.

Prof. M.S. Thacker, Director-General of the C.S.I.R., also spoke on the occasion, and assured of all support and assistance of the Government for the development of the Institute.

NEHRU'S WARNING TO CONGRESSMEN

Prime Minister Nehru has warned members of the Congress Parliamentary Party that failure of the Congress to stick to its ideals and work in pursuance of them and divorce of contact with the people would spell doom for the party and the country.

He is reported to have said that formulation of policies and their execution should be based on the constant realisation that the Congress must carry the people with it. And he agreed that henceforward various problems should be first discussed within the party before the Ministers concerned made policy statements thereon on the floor of the Parliament.

T.T.K. PROPOSES FLOOD OF NEW TAXES

NEW TAXES TO YIELD RS. 78 CRORES

The new taxation proposals made by the Union Finance Minister, Sri T. T. Krishnamachari, in the Parliament yesterday are expected to yield Rs. 77.85 crores to the Central Exchequer and Rs. 15 crores to the States.

Huge Deficit In Central Budget

Sri T.T.Krishnamachari, Union Finance Minister, presented to Parliament last evening the 1957-58 Central budget.

The Finance Minister, in doing so, proposed various taxation measures, which, he said, would reduce to Rs. 270 crores the overall deficit of Rs. 367.89 crores anticipated in the interim budget presented to the last Parliament in March.

The Finance Minister said that because of the strain on the country's foreign exchange resources, the level of imports hereafter had necessarily to be regulated in the light of the current earnings and the inflow of supplemental resources they could secure from abroad.

Dealing with the Second Plan, the Finance Minister said it was not possible to say at this stage to what extent the progress of the Plan would be affected because of foreign exchange shortage. With the external assistance already promised and with the support from the International Bank and other sources, he said, they should be able to carry through the projects relating to steel, coal, transport and ancillary power-the core of the Plan.

The Minister said though the Plan had run into difficulties, he saw no reason for alarm or panic. What was required was preparedness to make the necessary sacrifices and courage and resourcefulness in handling the problems that might arise in the course of its implementation, he added.

As a result of the new taxation proposals, a single postcard will cost 6 nP instead of 5 nP and local post-cards 4 nP instead of 3 nP.

Railway passengers will have to pay 5 per cent. more for distances upto 30 miles, and 15 per cent. more for distances between 31 and 500 miles and 10 per cent. more for longer distances. The additional revenue expected by this is Rs. 14 crores.

Income-tax base has been reduced from Rs. 4,200 to Rs. 3,000 and tax free slab applied to married people raised from Rs. 1000 to Rs. 2,000. Additional yield of revenue : Rs. 5 crores.

Besides the above, the income-tax for companies, Corporation Tax, Excise Dividend Tax on bonus shares and tax on wealth have been revised.

In addition to all these direct taxes, there are several enhancements in Customs and Excise duties. Duty on motor spirit, refined diesel oil, kerosene, vegetable and non-essential oils, tea and coffee, unmanufactured tobacco, paper and matches has been raised.

Excise duty on cement is raised from Rs. 5 to Rs. to 20 per ton, and on sugar from Rs. 5.62 to Rs. 11.25 per cwt.

As a result of the taxation proposals, a match box of 60 sticks now costs 6 nP and of 40 sticks 4 nP. The additional yield from this is estimated to be Rs. 6.2 crores.

"PYAASA"

"Pyaasa," which has been acclaimed all over India as one of the most outstanding productions of recent days, is running to crowded Houses at the local Olympia theatre.

Dealing with the saga of a poor, talented poet, as it does, the film has a universal appeal.

Gurudutt, who himself plays the title role, has given an exquisite account of himself. Wahida Rahman, Mala Sinha, Johnny Walker and Rehman, starring in the other leading roles, have perhaps given their best to make the film a thumping success.

"Pyaasa" is a story of thirst : thirst for money.

It depicts the conflicting forces and aspects of present day life in its true colours : integrity as opposed to greed and lust and cheap literature contending with rich poetry.

The lyrical grandeur of its music touches the heart. One finds in "Pyaasa" that the story and the "poetry" of life have not been sacrificed just for the sake of mass appeal and entertainment.

More than all, the film has a message to give, and that is a universal one.

Amrit Kaur Flays Prohibition Policy

Former Union Health Minister Rajkumari Amrit Kaur came out with one of the bitterest attacks on the Centre's Prohibition policy in the Rajya Sabha yesterday.

Speaking on the Finance Minister's Budget proposals, she said that Prohibition had failed wherever it had been tried-Turkey, Russia and the United States--and in India the result had been that money that should go to the exchequer was being taken by boot-leggers. The number of addicts in India, she said, was less than one per cent. and those who touched drinks were less than ten per cent.

If Gandhiji were alive today, she said, she was sure that he would have supported the scrapping of Prohibition and the reimposition of salt tax.

Earlier, she said that the new taxes imposed by the Finance Minister would make life very much harder, particularly for the poor.

Ministers' Pay Justified

The All-India Congress Committee turned down a non-official resolution seeking to limit the salaries of Congress Ministers to Rs. 1,000 a month.

Intervening in the debate, Prime Minister Nehru said that the present salaries of Ministers were not very much more after deduction of income-tax than what the resolution sought to prescribe. The Karachi Congress resolution had laid down a salary of not more than Rs. 500 per month, but that sum was equivalent to more than Rs. 2,000 today.

Striking a personal note, the Prime Minister said that he did not know what his salary was, but he was getting Rs. 1,600 per month after deduction of income-tax. Out of this, he said, about Rs. 900 was being spent on the maintenance of his ancestral house at Allahabad, and out of Rs. 700 he was left with, Rs. 200 would go towards subscriptions to various Congress committees and other organisations. Only Rs. 500 remained for his personal use.

WITHDRAWAL OF NEW TAXES URGED

PROTEST MEETING IN CITY

Mysore, 5

A public meeting organised under the auspices of the City Praja-Socialist Party at Townhall Maidan last evening, to protest against the new taxes, expressed itself against the new levies and called upon the Union Government to withdraw the same "forthwith."

The excise duty on various commodities like steel, cement, sugar, etc., the resolution said, had already raised the wholesale price index from 420 to 429 within a short period of ten days, and had shown the possibility of further increase, with the result, the cost of living of the common man had been adversely affected.

The resolution further stated that the new taxes would also affect the cost of the Plan, which would throw again additional burden on the people.

For these and other reasons, the resolution concluded, "this meeting is of the view that the revised rate of taxation on consumer goods is wrong, irrational and arbitrary; and urges the Union Government to withdraw the same forthwith."

Need For Multi-Purpose Societies

Mysore, 17

'Service to humanity is service to God and the rich should come forward, not only to help the people of their community, but the common man' observed Sri M. Ananthasayanam Iyengar, Speaker of Lok Sabha declaring open the new building of the Kanyakaparameshwari Co-operative Society here yesterday.

Sri Iyengar pointed out that in the present day the rich communities like the Vaisyas had an obligation to the society. The days demanded the rich to help not the rich, but the man-in-the-street. Nowadays the common man had less admiration for palaces, pomp and pleasure of the rich. Hunger and poverty knew no caste and creed and the societies like the one should strive hard for the betterment of not only Vaisyas but all the people, he pleaded.

Speaking about the co-operative movement, the Speaker stressed that all villages should be covered by the multi-purpose societies to benefit the villagers at larg.

Presiding over the Silver Jubilee Celebrations of the Society Sri Punjabrao Deshmukh Union Minister for Co-operation declared that the strength of co-operative movement lay not on Government's participation in the share capital of the societies, or on the legislative provisions, but on the effective participation of its members, while its success largely depended on its ability to perform its functions. The co-operative societies, Sri Deshmukh said, were voluntary organisations of the people.

The Minister pointed out that the ideals of co-operative movement fitted in admirably with the conception of the Socialistic pattern of society and provided a machinry for applying the principles of democracy in the country's economic spheres.

Referring to the achievements in the field of co-peration in Mysore State Sri Deshmukh said "You are heirs to a long glorious tradition which you have not only to maintain but enhance."

Sri Deshmukh assured that a model legislation and bye-laws designed to facilitate proper and smooth running of new type of societies to be organised during the Second Plan period would be made soon available to States and co-operative institutions for adoption with slight modification as local cirsumstances demanded.

Council of Elders For Municipality

Mysore, 17

He was speaking at 'Tea' given in his honour and Sri Punjabrao Deshmukh by the City Municipality.

Earlier the Municipal President Sri S. Sanjeeviah welcomed the guests.

Sri Ananthasayanam Iyengar said that the Maharajas had made the city beautiful and they had built best palaces. Now it was the duty of the people and the Municipality to take the lead from the Maharajas and keep the city as Garden City of India' for ever.

Referring to the enormous growth of the capital Cities like Delhi, Bombay, Bangalore and others, Sri Iyengar suggested that except the Secretariat all other departments should be shifted to less important cities, and thereby the Governments could utilise the Palaces and mansians and as well save money from the construction of new buildings.

Further the Speaker suggested that the Municipalities should have a Council of Elders, consisting of retired judges, officials and others, from whom the Municipality could seek advise on all important civic matters.

The Municipality should strive hard to uplift the poor, construct houses for them. 'Go to the people, you City Fathers, find out their problems and solve them,' he said. Sri Iyengar pleaded 'I don't want to see any beggars and any unemployed'. It was in the hands of the Municipality to do away with this.

"Whenever I think of Mysore, I remember your arts and crafts, keep them up for ever," he said.

Sri Punjabrao Deshmukh speaking said that if the Municipality had the courage to tax the people, they could do so and still be popular. It was in their hands.

There was large scope for the development of the new State of Mysore. 'I am sure your State is going to be leading State in the country if the natural resources and other facilities in the State are properly utilised," said the Minister.

Need For Congress-Govt. Co-ordination

Mysore, 17

Lok Sabha Speaker Sri Ananthasayanam Iyengar pleaded for better co-operation and co-ordination between the organisational and the Ministerial wings of the Congress.

He was speaking at a function held in the honour of Sri S. Channiah, the new M.P.C.C. President, yesterday here.

He said that like the Chief Minister of the State having a cabinet, the Congres President had also his own cabinet, and he was the unofficial head. The Ministry should always consult the organisational side to find out means and ways for the success of the administration. Only then, said Sri Iyengar, the Congress rule could be made popular. He wished how nice it would have been if the heads of all departments who had to carry out the Plans had been Congressmen

Referring to the Services of Sri S. Channiah, Sri Ananthasayanam Iyengar said that he was the unofficial head of the State always, and had been there not through votes, but by winning the hearts of the people.

Sri S. Channiah replying to the address presented to him by Sri M. B. Basavaiah on behalf of the Reception Committe thanked the people of Mysore for supporting his cause and said that he would always strive hard for the betterment of the people.

Earlier Sri B.Narayanaswamy welcoming the guests praised the services of Sri S. Channiah.

"Bhowani Junction", M.G.M's technicolor picture in CinemaScope was released at the local Sri Gayathri Talkies yesterday.

A Preview of the picture was arranged for the Press and elite of the City by the Management yesterday morning.

"Bhowani Junction" is the picturisation of the widely read novel of the same name written by John Masters.

The story centres round on an Anglo-Indian girl, Victoria Jones, whose patriotism and loyalty are torn between India and Britain. Her love of three different personalities, an Anglo-Indian first, then a Sikh and later the British Colonel, has been depicted in this story.

The breath-taking scenes of the train disaster, which is due to foul-play of the Goondas pretending to be patriots are really something nobody could miss to see.

The whole story is woven with the background of the anti.British movement during the days of the Indian Freedom Struggle in 1942.

Ava Gardener plays the role of Victoria Jones and Stewart Granger that of British Army Officer.

PLEA FOR ASSISTANCE FROM GRANTS COMMISSION

VARSITY SUBMITS MEMORANDUM

Mysore, 27

The members of the University Syndicate met Sri C. D. Deshmukh, Chairman, University Grants Commission here yesterday and submitted a memorandum appealing for financial and other assistance to the University to carry out the proposed developmental works, to ameliorate the salary conditions of the teaching staff and for efficient maintenance of the institutions.

It was pointed out in the memorandum that being the first university started in 1916 outside the British Indian Provinces and the fifth in India, the structure and pattern had changed during the past 40 years, a number of facilities added and the strength of the students and teachers had gone up.

At present there were eight faculties, 44 colleges -18 University Colleges and 26 affiliated and 10 University degree colleges. The strength had risen from 593 in 1916 to over 25,000 in 1956-57 and the number of students in professional colleges was 6,777. The number of girl students had risen from bare four to 3,400 today and the depressed community students to 800.

With the growth of the University, the expenditure had also gone up from 3.84 lakhs in 1916 to 81.07 lakhs in 1955-56. The estimated expenditure for 1957-58 was Rs. 112.69 lakhs. The finances of the University, at present, mostly grants from the Government and fee income did not allow even to provide the legitimate demand of the promising youth of the country and it had become even difficult to maintain the departments at optimum standards.

After the passing of the University Act, the University of Mysore had become an autonomous body. Henceforth the State Government was likely to pay annually only an amount equal to that of the average expenditure of the preceeding three years, which may come up to Rs. 45 lakhs, it pointed out.

In addition to the financial help, the University has sought the help of the Commission for implementing the following schemes:

Improving the present University Library and establishing one Central Library at Bangalore; expansion of Central College Building, Bangalore, Teachers' College, Mysore, and Maharaja's College, Mysore; construction of a general library at Central College, Bangalore; development of the Home Science Department and providing necessary accommodation and equipment for laboratory work in the Maharani's Colleges at Bangalore and Mysore; improving the cricket pavilion at the Central College, Bangalore; starting a Teachers' College at Bangalore; development of indological studies and Department of Geography in Mysore; development of Oriental Research Insitute, Mysore; upgrading the Inter Colleges and improving the existing degree colleges; construction of examination halls at Bangalore and Mysore; and hostel buildings at University Centres; establishing a College of Fine Arts and a University Printing Press.

SOCIAL SERVICE TO HELP NEEDY

STRESS LAID AT WORKERS' MEET

Mysore, 29

Smt. Durgabai Deshmukh, Chairman of the Central Social Welfare Board, said here last evening, that social service was intended to serve those who could not be served along with the common man, but needed a special type of service in order that they could lead a life of honour and social security.

Smt. Deshmukh, who was addressing a meeting of social workers under the auspices of the State Social Advisory Board, said that social service was not a new thing and it was there even in the distant past. Even in those days only the voluntary organisations were in charge of social service and today, there were about 10,000 such institutions in the country. The whole machinery of these bodies was run by private enterprise and not by the Government.

Adverting to the importance of social work among women, the Chairman stated that it was a matter of shame that 92 per cent. of women in the country were still illiterate and there was a good deal yet to be done for the betterment of their lots.

Dwelling at length on the various schemes of the Board, the speaker stated that the Board had allotted Rs. 10,5 crores for rehabilitating women who were victims to immoral traffic and commercial vice, and 430 homes had been opened for this purpose.

Her Highness Smt. Tripurasundarammanni called upon the social workers to meet the various social problems with calmness and courage, with honesty and singleness of purpose.

Presiding over the meeting, Her Highness said the responsibilities of the nation were also the responsibilities of each citizen. Each one of us could do social service in our own houses. We could train our children not only to be good citizens, but to be loving and sympathetic to the need of others. If we could meet all our problems with faith end courage, and if we could gain the goodwill and united efforts of the people of our land, she said, the burden of social service would shrink to the weight of an individual load.

Dwelling at length on the aims and objectives of the Board, the speaker said social welfare work was most effective and necessary among the women and children of our land and she was glad no efforts were being spared to further the work in this direction.

Continuing, Her Highness stated it should be their concern to look after the old and the sick, the orphan and the fatherless children, within their family units. Normal children, she said, were the nation's greatest asset.

Her Highness suggested that small schools could be started in private houses, not for the children who could pay fees, but for those who had no homes but the streets.

In conclusion, Her Highness appealed to all to share in this wonderful work of rebuilding the Nation.

Smt. Achamma Mathai, Member of the Central Board, also addressed the meeting.

Earlier, Smt. Lakshmi Krishnappa welcomed. Sri T. Mariappa, Finance Minister, proposed a vote of thanks.

Sri Mir Noor Hussain said that no less than a lakh of people were suffering from 'flu in the City and complained about lack of medical aid.

Dist. Education Officers' Meet

Mysore, 1

A meeting of all the officers of the Department of Education in Mysore District was held here yesterday at the Maharaja's High School to discuss the various local problems of primary and secondary education.

Education Minister Sri V. Venkatappa presided.

Addressing the officers, the Minister said he was sure that the conference of officers would help create an atmosphere of mutual understanding and cordiality among the officers of the Department.

The Minister advised the Inspectors of Schools not to go on complaining against teachers; instead, they should correct them then and there alone, so that an atmosphere of goodwill and cordiality could be created.

Referring to the very poor response in the district to the "Bhoodan" movement launched by the Department, the Minister pointed out that it might be due to the fact that lands in the district were fertile and people were not readily willing to part with them.

The Minister referred to the compulsory primary education scheme and said if pupils were looked after by the teachers with parental affection and care, there would be no necessity to make primary education compulsory at all. In this respect, the teacher had a great responsibility to discharge, he added.

As regards the demand for shifting the Educational Offices from its present location in Body Guard Lines to the centre of the City, the Minister said that the question would be considered sympathetically.

Earlier, Sri B. M. Krishnan, Director of Public Instruction, welcomed.

ROLE OF VARSITIES IN RESOLVING CONFLICTS

DESHMUKH LAYS STRESS AT CONVOCATION

Mysore, 1

Sri C. D. Deshmukh, Chairman of the University Grants Commission, said here yesterday that it was upto the Universities now to find means of resolving the conflict between knowledge and wisdom of scientific achievement and the relation of neutrality of ethical values.

He said : "I see two phenomena in the present day world which are difficult to reconcile: on the one hand, we have the great changes in science and technology especially during the last twenty years or so.

Along the other end we have the spectacle of the world engaged in war or on the brink of war and each war is or has been threatening to be more devastating than the previous one".

He was addressing a special convocation of the Mysore University held at the Crawford Hall yesterday to confer on him the honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws. His Highness the Chancellor, Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, the Governor of Mysore, presided.

Sri Deshmukh said Universities were the nation's chief instruments for tracing and reviving national facilities for the harmonious blending of values of sciences and values of humanities and he was convinced that on proper understanding of the situation Universities would be able to discharge this task provided they were given necessary assistance to cope with their responsibilities.

Adverting to the special problems confronting Mysore, he observed that though the State was spending one-third of its revenue on education, they had yet a long way to go, and as regards University education, there was still need for adjustments. It was, therefore, necessary, he said, to reorientate the population in the State to take advantage of the economic progress.

In a reference to the very low percentage of passes in the various university examinations in Mysore, Sri Deshmukh said he found the percentage of passes to be lower than elsewhere and it indicated the tremendous waste of State's resources. The remedy to this, he said, lay in the rapid improvement of the Secondary Education system, which, he was sure, would make the employers declare that they no longer needed graduates for service.

Sri Deshmukh refferred to the provision in the Second Five-Year Plan for education and said that it was proportionately less than the provision made in the First Plan. Circumstances called for something more and entirely different, he said.

Continuing, the speaker said, it should be recognised that there could be no progress in the industrial or other fields unless the advance was matched by progress in the field of education. He felt that so far there were no indications that this principle had been realised in our country.

Earlier, Dr. K. V. Puttappa, Vice-Chancellor, welcoming praised the services of Sri Deshmukh.

Among those who were present at the Convocation were Sri S. R. Kanthi, Speaker of the State Assembly, Sri P. Sitharamaiah, Chairman of the Legislative Council, Education Minister Sri V. Venkatappa, P.W.D. Minister Sri Veeranna Gowdh, and Smt. Durgabai Deshmukh, Chairman of the Central Social Welfare Board.

Letter to the Editor :

Dept.'s Directive Not Followed ?

Sir:

Please permit me to invite the attention of the public to one of the several irregularities being practised by the authorities of the local St. Philomena's High School and St. Joseph's Middle School.

While the Education Department has issued orders for closing all the institutions in the City till the 10th July on account of the 'flu epidemic, those in charge of these two institutions have flouted the department's circular and are running the schools in spite of many protests from parents.

Will the authorities please look into the matter and see that not only the schools are closed immediately as per the directive of the D.D.P.I., Mysore, but take necessary action in order that there will not be any recurrence of such irregularities in the future?

Change In Voting System

The Government of India have accepted the recommendations of the Election Commission for a major change in the present voting system in General Elections.

A person from now on will record his vote by placing a mark on the ballot paper against the name of the candidate he prefers.

A Government of India press note said that according to the new system, the ballot paper will contain the names of all the contesting candidates along with the fascimiles of their respective symbols. A person will mark his vote in secret and insert the ballot paper into the ballot box placed within the view of the presiding officer, the polling agents and everybody else in the polling station.

The new method, the note added, was not only less expensive and less complicated but will also remove a large number of complaints. There will no longer be any allegation regarding the tampering of the ballot boxes and transfer of ballot papers from one box to another. A good deal of labour and time will also be saved. There will be no opportunity for the voter to take away any ballot paper out of the polling station without casting the vote.

This new system will be nothing but a reversal to the old system of voting which was prevalent in several parts of the country in general and other elections.

Co-operation Between P. W. D. And Varsities Stressed

Mysore, 19

Inaugurating the 27th annual Research Session of the Central Board of Irrigation and Power at Crawford Hall this afternoon, Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, Governor of Mysore, stressed the importance of cooperation between the Public Works Department and the University in carrying out engineering research.

"In a country like ours emerging into a great,new era of engineering development, such a co-operative endeavour in research is a condition precedent to progress," he said.

India and China, the Governor said, were among the first nations in the world to build wells and reservoirs, dams and canals, and added that it would be no exaggeration to say that irrigation and flood control works built by Indians in the 2nd Century B. C. and in the 10th and 16th Centuries A. D. were hardly surpassed anywhere.

The Governor pointed out that the ecological aspect of large engineering schemes in the country had not received the attention it deserved and called upon the delegates to consider its importance

In conclusion, he stressed the importance of making a study of glacier recession in the Himalayas for a better understanding of the nature and the behaviour of our Himalayan rivers, and for the successful execution of the great projects they had for harnessing them. He also expressed the hope that our engineers in co-operation with mountaineering Societies like the Himalayan Club would set up glacier research and study stations for recording snow-melt, snowfall, precipitation, and glacier recession in Himalayan regions.

Delivering the Presidential address, Sri U. N. Mahida, Chief Engineer (Irrigation), Bombay, paid tributes to the State of Mysore which, he said was moulded by a succession of statesmen, engineers and scientists into a pattern of multi-faced progress with harmonious blending of all the different phases of development.

Stating that there had not been sufficient liaison between the Universities, Technical Institutions and Departmental Research Stations, the President said that many practical problems confronting the engineers in their daily tasks would be solved and advancement of knowledge facilitated if a closer collaboration between the research work conducted at the University level and fundamental and applied research work carried out in the field of laboratories.

Sri Mahida stressed the need for research in the fields of preventing silting of reservoirs, and substituting the essential materials like steel and cement and also soil classification.

Speaking about power engineering, Sri Mahida said that it had been proposed to establish two power research stations, one at Bangalore and the other at Bhopal.

In conclusion, he thanked the State Government for its best arrangements made for the conduct of the conference in Mysore.

The Session is being attended by representatives of organisations like ECAFE, International Commission on Irrigation and Drainage, Technical Co-operation Mission, ICAR, and Central Road Research Institute.

SECOND PAY COMMISSION TO BE SET UP

NEHRU CONDEMNS STRIKE THREATS

Union Finance Minister Sri T. T. Krishnamachari announced in the Lok Sabha yesterday that the Government of India might set up a body to examine the pay structure of Government employees.

The Minister stated that the Body cannot go into this question in an isolated manner as there were a number of integrated problems.

Sri Krishnamachari admitted that the cost of living was such that there was undoubtedly a case for setting right many of the grievances of the Central employees. However, in so doing, there must be a sense of priority and the case of the State Government servants could not be altogether ignored.

He made an appeal to the Opposition to cooperate with Government. If this was forthcoming, then all the threats of strike must stop, he said. If they did not, one must conclude that politics dominated the situation and economics was only a handmaid.

Prime Minister Nehru' intervening, condemned the language of threats and defiance and go-slow tactics adopted by workers, and warned that they could not hold up Government and the community and make them do something which they could not normally do. No Government worth its name, he added, would submit to such threats and "we will face them," he declared.

NEHRU DEPLORES SUHRAWARDY'S STATEMENTS

'Pakistan through its military alliances and the rest, is encouraged to pursue wrong paths which prevented a settlement of so many problems India has with that country' observed Prime Minister Nehru in the Lok Sabha yesterday.

Opening the Foreign Affairs debate, the Prime Minister said that Pakistan's cold war approach and membership of military pacts had prevented settlement of so many Indo-Pakistan problems.

Sri Nehru deplored Pak Prime Minister Suhrawardy's speeches in America and Britain accusing India that it was bent upon reducing Pakistan into a desert by cutting waters or making the population suffer untold misery. This was far from truth, he said.

He also observed that the canal waters dispute was purely technical, but Pakistan had made it a political issue.

REDS SUPPORT FOREIGN POLICY

Prof. Hiren Mukherjee (Communist-West Bengal) said in the Lok Sabha that he extended his party's support to the Government's policy towards Pakistan, particularly on Kashmir, but wanted Government to take greater steps to explain to the people of Pakistan that India was really and truly friendly to them. But he renewed his party's demand that India should leave the Commonwealth.

Sri S. N. Dwivedy (PSP-Orissa) also pleaded for leaving the Commonwealth.

PLEA FOR MILITARY ALLIANCE WITH RUSSIA

Sri Brajeswara Prasad (Congress-Bihar) suggested that India should not accept any American aid but enter into a military alliance with the Soviet Union and China instead.

DEFENCE MINISTER MENON WARNS PAKISTAN

Sri V.K. Krishna Menon, Union Defence Minister, declared in Parliament yesterday that the phenomenal increase in the air and military strength of Pakistan as a result of American aid was not a matter that would escape our attention. "If in spite of all our efforts to be on the friendliest terms with Pakistan we fail and if this land of ours were to be invaded once again as in 1947, then anyone who comes here will get it not as good as he gives, but better, he added.

Replying to the debate on the demand for Defence Ministry's grants, Sri Menon said that the Indian armed forces were a peace force. They were not conceived, organised or equipped to act beyond the Indian frontiers as war weapon. The frontiers of the country were the frontiers of the territory of the Union of India as established by the Constitution of India (including Jammu and Kashmir). These frontiers would be defended, if attacked, not only to the best ability of the Indian armed forces but also with all the determination of the Indian people, he declared.

INDIA'S CATTLE WEALTH

India possesses the largest stock of cattle in the world with U.S.A. and U.S.S.R. occupying second and third places respectively. The total post-war cattle population of the world was estimated at 718 million out of which 19 per cent. was in India.

The total output of milk in the country at the beginning of the First Five Year Plan was over 18 million tons of which 38 per cent was consumed as fluid milk, about 42 per cent. for ghee and the rest for butter, curd and other products.

The average production of milk of the better Indian breeds of cows and buffaloes, is about 1500 lbs. per lactation while the general average may be only half. This output is extremely low in comparison to the production in western countries which ranges from 3,000 to 4,000 lbs.

One of the reasons for it is that the present cattle population in the country is considerably in excess of the proportion of the available supply of fodder.

The Key Village Scheme provides for concentration work for live-stock improvement. During the First Plan period 600 Key Villages and 150 artificial insemination centres were established. During the Second Plan, 1,258 Key Villages, 245 artificial insemination centres and 254 extension centres are proposed to be set up.

The programme is intended to produce about 22,000 improved stud bulls, 9,50,000 improved bullocks and a million improved cows.

DEVELOP CO-OPERATIVE ATTITUDE AND GIVE UP STRIKE

PRIME MINISTER'S APPEAL TO P & T MEN

Prime Minister Nehru has called upon the Post and Telegraph employees to give up their proposed strike and develop co-operative attitude and the objective approach.

In a broadcast to the nation yesterday, Sri Nehru said that strikes had been the old and well recognised weapon of industrial labour to better conditions. But he added 'I would earnestly suggest that the time had come when other methods should be evolved both for the benefit of the labour, as well as of the community at large.'

The Prime Minister warned that if the strike took place, then 'no Government and no citizen can remain as a helpless spectator of this inconvenience to the community'.

'It becomes the duty of every one therefore to help in meeting the situation and to maintain these essential services," he added.

Sri Nehru said that Government had regretfully introduced a Bill in the Lok Sabha for the maintenance of essential services, but assured that 'this Bill need not and will not come into effect if there is no strike'.

Speaking about the interim relief by the Commission, the Prime Minister said that the inquiry commission could make an interim report about relief or other matters and added 'I do not know what more Government can do in these circumstances.'

Concluding the Prime Minister said 'we live in an age of revolutionary changes, technical and other and the dreadful symbol of this change is the hydrogen bomb. The old order changes yielding place to new. If we are to succeed in this changing revolutionary age as we must and will, we shall have to get out of the old ruts of our thinking and the old ways of faction and conflict and build up an unbreakable front of unity of outlook and endeavour. Thus we shall serve India and progressively bring happiness to our people who have suffered from poverty so long.'

C.M.'s Appeal To P & T Workers

Bangalore, 8

Chief Minister Sri S. Nijalingappa expressing his great concern over the Post and Telegraph employees' strike scheduled to commence from today midnight, appealed to them in a Radio broadcast yesterday not to precipitate the proposed strike, which was fraught with grave consequences to the employees and to the country.

The Chief Minister pointed out that the Prime Minister's broadcast on Monday had emphasised the futility of threats and counter-threats.

As pointed out by him, the time had come when other methods had to be evolved in order to develop a co-operative attitude and objective approach "To strike now and disorganise the life of the nation which is directing all its energies to the fulfilment of the Second Five-Year Plan is not only anti-social but also anti-national."

Sri Nijalingappa further stated that the country had a record of work in these ten years of which they were all naturally proud. This, he said, could not have been achieved without the workers' co-operation. This record should not be spoilt by ill-considered steps. As intelligent citizens, the employees of the Central Government must be aware of the considerable difficulties that India had to face and was facing in the political as well as economic spheres.

In conclusion, he said he had already received offers of help from associations and individuals in case the proposed strike unfortunately materialised, and he was hopeful that every citizen in the State would come forward to volunteer and to man the essential services, if necessary, in order to see that the inconvenience to the common man was minimised as far as possible.

SWEEPERS' STRIKE CALLED OFF

Mysore, 12

The threatened strike by City's 800 odd Municipal sweepers which was to have been launched from today, has been called off, as a result of the decision of the Municipal Labour Union to wait until the Industrial Tribunal gave its verdict on the question.

The State Government passed orders on Saturday referring the dispute between the sweepers and the City Municipality, to the one-man Industrial Tribunal consisting of Sri D. H. Chandrasekhariah.

When members of the Union assembled in the Town Hall premises this morning the Assistant Labour Commissioner addressed them and explained that their dispute had been referred to the Tribunal with a view to getting their grievances redressed. He also advised them to call off the strike to create a proper atmosphere.

Earlier on Friday, the Municipal President, Sri S. Sanjeevaiah, told Pressmen that though the authorities viewed with sympathy the demands of the sweepers, it had not been possible for them to concede them on account of paucity of funds. He added that the demands would be fulfilled as soon as their efforts to get increased financial assistance from the Government became fruitful.

Sri A. Viswanath, Municipal Commissioner, stated that they were spending a sum of Rs. 12 lakhs out of an annual revenue of Rs. 26 lakhs on establishment only. They had already reduced the expenditure on public works from Rs. 10 lakhs to Rs. 6 lakhs, and any further reduction in this expenditure would hamper the work on civic amenities.

The Commissioner stated that they would have to find another Rs. 3 to 4 lakhs in order to enhance the salary and allowances of the Municipal workers, which of course, he said, was not possible since they could not tax anymore the already over burdened tax-payers.

Stating that the Municipal sweepers had already been given a temporary relief of Rs. 5 each, he pointed out that most of them had been given free quarters, a facility exclusively provided in Mysore only. Besides, they were given two pairs of uniform a year. The average emoluments of a sweeper, the Commissioner said, was now Rs. 47-8.0 as compared to a clerk's salary of Rs. 50, and in many a sweeper's family, two, three or more persons worked in the Municipality.

Readers' Jorum:

Unhygienic Hotels

Sir:

It is disheartening to note the unsatisfactory conditions that prevail in several hotels in the City. Vessels and utensils that are in use are not cleaned properly. It is a truism to say that some hotels do not clean the used vessels and utensils in hot water, with the result there areenough possibilities of people getting all sorts of diseases. The rule that "people suffering from communicable and contagious diseases are not allowed" is not followed in practice. The tables on which preparations are served are not removed and cleaned properly. In many a hotel, the cleaners and suppliers are not clean and tidy.

In spite of the fact that coffee powder and milk are available at comparatively moderate prices, the quality of coffee served has gone down, not to mention of the quantity, which has consistently been diminished by the management.

It is incumbent on the Municipal health authorities to see that these defects are set right.

VARSITY GIVEN ULTIMATUM BY GRANTS COMMISSION?

Mysore, 14

The University Grants Commission is understood to have given an ultimatum to the University of Mysore for submitting its final proposals in respect of the enhancement of the salaries of the teaching staff of the University.

Hopes of a fair deal to the teaching staff of the University have again receded into the background, according to a well-informed source.

This could also be discerned in the way things are happening in the University vis-a-vis the implementation of scales of salaries as recommended by the Grants Commission.

When the Chairman of the Commission, Sri C. D. Deshmukh, visited Mysore in June last with a view to discussing the question with the University, University men believed that something positive was going to turn out at long last and hopefully looked forward to the out come of the Deshmukh-Varsity parleys.

It is learnt now that despite a couple of reminders from the Commission asking the University as to whether or not they had finalised their proposals for revising the teachers' salary, the University has not so far communicated their decision to the former, but is waiting for the approval of their proposals by the State Government.

It may be recalled that the Grants Commission made a decent offer to the University nearly two years ago, to the effect that they would share the additional expenditure that they would have to incur for revising the salaries, to the extent of 80 per cent. But the Commission insisted that the University should become an autonomous institution, and the Commission's offer was of no avail.

Now it is more than a year since the University has become "autonomous" but still nothing substantial has been done in the direction of revising the prevailing salary structure. The Commission itself took the initiative and its Chairman came down to Mysore, but it would appear he went disappointed as enthusiasm and drive on the part of the authorities were not readily forthcoming.

FIREWORKS MISHAP KILLS THREE AND INJURES OVER A HUNDRED

INDEPENDENCE DAY FUNCTION MARRED

Mysore, 16

The whole city which went gay in celebrating the tenth anniversary of Independence since yesterday morning, plunged in sorrow and anxiety as a barrel-like container of fire-works cape, burst at the very place where the celebrations were being held last evening and claimed a toll of three lives on the spot, and injured over a hundred others.

Enthusiastic men, women and children who had thronged the Town Hall Maidan to witness Independence Day function, were eagerly looking forward to the display of colourful fire-works, which has been a regular feature for the past ten years.

As soon as the cape kept in an iron cylinder, about 3 ft. in length, was lit at about 8-20 p.m. a terrible sound of explosion was heard and hardly a few seconds had passed, when the whole Maidan submurged in groans and moans and people began to run helter skelter. For the massive cape which should have exploded some sixty-seventy feet high in the air, exploded in the ground level bursting open the weighty cylinder, resulting in the splinters being thrown on expectant spectators around. Some splinters are reported to have been thrown off a distance of over a hundred yards, and at least one person sitting in the bus-stand sustained some minor injuries.

The Police present on the spot, immediately cleared the crowd, and cordoned off the site of the mishap.

Three children were found to have already been killed besides a number of the injured lying on the ground even unable to cry aloud.

The bodies of the dead as well as a number of injured persons were promptly removed to K. R. Hospital by the Police.

Those who died on the spot were Raghu, 9 years old son of Police Dafedar Narahari Rao, Yashoda and Ratna two sisters aged 9 and 7 daughters of Sri Narayanaswamy of Ittigegud. Of the 40 admitted as inpatients 23 are children, 6 ladies and 11 men. Of the ladies Smt. Sundaramma of Kille Mohalla, a pregnant lady, sustained injuries on her thigh has been transferred to Cheluvamba Hospital due to untimely labour pains. The condition of seven is said to be serious including the son of a ward boy of the K. R. Hospital and a child aged 18 months named Gangadhara.

The number of patients treated as out patients till today is said to be about 70.

It is understood that quite a number of people who had sustained minor injuries went home of their own accord.

Dr. A. K. Gopalarajan, Superintendent of the Hospital, Dr. K. R. Krishnamurthy, R.M.O. and a host of doctors including some private practitioners, who were immediately called to duty attended on the injured through out last night.

Enquiries made in official circles revealed that the authorities had given contract this year for the display of fire-works to the same contractor who was being entrusted with the job for the past ten years. While the authorities themselves are undecided about the cause of the accident, it is obvious that it was due to any or all of these reasons: defective or loose planting of the container of the cape; use of defective container; and use of very highly powerful cape.

The Municipal President, Sri S. Sanjeevaiah and Commissioner Sri A. Viswanath have expressed their sympathy for the bereaved families and to the injured.

Chief Minister Sri Nijalingappa, on hearing the news of this mishap has conveyed his condolences to the bereaved family and has expressed the hope that the injured would recover soon.

TESTING TIME FOR INDIA

PRESIDENT'S CALL TO PEOPLE

In his Independence Day message to the nation, President Dr. Rajendra Prasad stated yesterday that "the testing time has come and India looks to each one of our citizens to do his or her duty honestly and conscientiously in this hour of trial."

The President greeting the people on the occasion said: "Our country is up against some difficulties in marshalling adequate resources for implementing the SecondFive-YearPlan. These difficulties,whatever their nature, are a challenge to our nation's resourcefulness and our people's determination to carry out the Plan in the interest of national development and the welfare of the country as a whole".

The President reminded the people that political freedom was not complete until it furnished them with means to acquire economic freedom also so that every citizen was guaranteed the minimum comforts of life and complete freedom for want. He added that this transition from political to economic emancipation necessarily called for determined effort and sacrifice of personal comfort for the sake of the nation's good.

Concluding, the President said: "This day is an occasion for national rejoicing. Let everyone feel happy, cheerful and buoyant. I wish you all the best of luck and greater happiness and prosperity in the coming year."

FIRST AND FOREMOST LOYALTY TO INDIA

P.M.'s STIRRING CALL TO NATION

Prime Minister Nehru declared yesterday at Delhi that the time had come when every Indian had to search his heart consciously and make up his mind determinedly about his first loyalty to India which must have precedence over every other loyalty —family, community, caste or language.

Addressing over half a million people at a mammoth meeting held under the chairmanship of President Rajendra Prasad in Ramlila Grounds to commemorate the 1857 movement, the Prime Minister dramatically asked whether the people accepted this pledge, and if they did, he asked them to raise their hands. The enthusiastic audience, moved by emotion, raised its hands and echoed and re-echoed the pledge administered by the Prime Minister.

Pointing out that in the past India had lost her freedom because the people were disunited, because they quarrelled with one another and because they gave precedence to parochial things over the national interests. "This old disease must not break out again" he said.

The President in his address called upon the people to uphold the traditions handed down by the martyrs of the freedom struggle and to take a vow that the aim for which millions of our people struggled for a hundred years would ever remain in their memory and that "we shall maintain the independence and dignity of our country whatever the difficulties."

Soaring Prices May Lead To Disaster

Mysore, 19

Sri K. Hanumanthaiya, former Chief Minister of Mysore, said here on Saturday that if proper measures were not taken immediately to check the soaring prices of food-grains, the situation in the country at the present juncture was sure to head on to a disaster.

Presiding over the Independence Day celebrations at the Town Hall under the auspices the local Saraswathi Union, Sri Hanumanthaiya said the present impasse in the economic position of India was a direct consequence of the heavy expenditure on the Second Plan. The country's resouces were spendnig themselves up rapidly and it was a pity that people at the helm of affairs had been over-zealous and over-ambitious.

Continuing, he said that it was regrettable that today's State Governments had developed an attitude of saying "yes" to all that the Centre said. Even in A I.C.C. meetings, a great many people simply listened to "big men's speeches" and raised their hands as if by instinct, without exercising their brains at all. He wanted that people should develop the thinking faculty and discussive attitude.

The announcement stated that the managers would be free to choose and appoint whomsoever they like from the State list. The Government would provide jobs in the Government schools for those who were left over.

On the question of taking over the schools, Government would see that religious interests were in no way offended or thwarted. NO CIVIL STRIFE IN KASHMIR, ASSERTS MENON

Bangalore, 21

Sri V.K. Krishna Menon, Union Defence Minister, categorically stated here yesterday that there was no civil strife in Kashmir because Mr. Sadiq had seceded.

He told a Press conference that he did not see any political instability or feel any sense of insecurity on account of the Bhakshi Sadiq differences.

Sri Krishna Menon, who only a few days ago visited Kashmir, said that he took the opportunity of meeting the National Conference workers and tried to see how best the difference between these two people could be resolved.

EXTERNAL PROBLEM

As for the external problem Kashmir faced, the Defence Minister stated that there was nothing new confronting India and as yet, there was no official intimation about the meeting of the Security Council about which Pakistan was loud at present. "We don't want the Security Council meeting", he added.

Sri Menon said he wanted people to recognise that attempts were being made to transgress or violate our territory, even though India did not propose to spoil for a fight. But aggression would have to be met.

India had informed the Security Council that any further agression would be looked upon with grave concern, he said adding, "If there is any violation of territory it will be the business of our people to defend." He clarified that they were not creating any war psychosis.

The Defence Minister reminded that India was spending on defence much less than what Pakistan was spending. "But we will not take any foreign military aid. We have no military alliances; we are not concerned with military pacts and we do not have any unauthorised troops, he concluded.

ARRIVAL IN BANGALORE

Sri Menon arrived in Bangalore by "Meghadut II" straight from Delhi. He visited in the course of the day the H.A.L., Bharat Electronics, I.A.F. establishments at Jalahalli, Hindusthan Machine Tools Factory and the Madras Engineering Group.

Besides these two deaths, 35 persons were removed to hospital for injuries and the condition of one who was seriously injured in the eye was causing anxiety, he added.

The Home Minister further stated that the incident was purely accidental and that police had taken all precautionary measures. The University Degree as a requirement for the public services should continue to have its appropriate place, but it need not be a necessary qualification for all levels of service. For lower and middle levels of services, other than class one executive, the degree qualification should be abolished, was the recommendation of the Public ServicesCommittee, the report of which was placed on both the Houses of Parliament on Tuesday last.

The Committee has felt that for the highest executive and administrative services, a maturity of outlook and cultural standard was required which by and large can naturally be expected of graduates.

The 10-man Committee headed by Dr. A. Ramaswamy Mudaliar was appointed by the Government of India in April 1955 to examine the need for a University degree as a prerequisite qualification for the public services.

The Committee has also recommended a recruitment examination for all levels of Government services.

"JUDICIAL ENQUIRY" INTO FIREWORKS MISHAP

Mysore, 31

A "judicial enquiry" into the cracker mishap that occurred on the Independence Day here, has been ordered by the Duputy Commissioner and Additional District Magistrate, Mysore, stated Sri S. Sanjeevaiah, Municipal President, at the Council meeting here yesterday.

At the out set, the President regretted the incident and said as usual they had arranged for the display of fireworks to highlight the Independence Day celebrations on August 15, at the Townhall Maidan. The first cracker went off well, but the second one exploded at the ground level quite unexpectedly, resulting in the death of three children and injuries to thirty-five. The police, he said, had registered a case and were conducting investigations.

Meantime, the President added that a judicial enquiry has been ordered by the Deputy Commissioner.

The final enquiry had not been completed since they had not yet had the report of the Inspector of Explosives, he said.

Sri B. G. Das wanted that the displeasure caused by the incident should be removed.

President: "The matter is before the Court and the discussion might become sub judice.

Mir Noor Hussain: Before which court?

President: Enquiry has been ordered. Police have filed the F.I.R. and the matter is before the Court.

Sri Hussain: To whom the F.I.R. has been sent?

President: To the Court.

Sri Hussain: Against whom the case has been registered?

President: Against the contractor.

Sri M. N. Thimmaiah said they had been elected to voice the grievances of the people and if they could not do that, there was no meaning in their being in the Council.

Again, the President said that any more discussion on the question might lead to contempt of Court.

At this stage, the President moved a resolution expressing the Council's profound grief over the unhappy incident and conveying its condolences to the bereaved families. The resolution was passed and the Council observed two minutes' silence.

Sri Mir Hussain then moved a resolution to adjourn the meeting in memory of the victims of the incident. The Council adopted the resolution and adjourned to Sept. 5.

Earlier, the Council adopted a resolution condoling the death of Sri B. L. Ramaswamy Setty, a sitting member of the Council and observed two minutes' silence as a mark of respect.

MODIFIED RATIONING SUGGESTED

FOOD SMUGGLING TO PAKISTAN AND GOA

Sri Ashok Mehta, Chairman of the Foodgrains Committee, said at Bombay that there was considerable smuggling of foodgrains from India to neighbouring countries. According to non-official witnesses foodgrains were smuggled from India to East Pakistan, Goa, West Pakistan and Ceylon, he added.

Replying to a question, Sri Mehta said that the Government of States so far visited were not in favour of a policy of procurement and rationing in principle. However most of the witnesses examined were for a solution midway between procurement and rationing on one hand and unfettered free trade on the other. The Committee, he said, wanted to find out whether and in what circumstances procurement and rationing should be resorted to.

CITY COUNCIL TO CUT STRENGTH BY EIGHT

HEATED DISCUSSION AT MEETING

Mysore, 3

After a great deal of heated discussion, in a state of confusion, the City Municipal Council endorsed this morning a Managing Committee resolution for the fixation of the Council's strength at 32 instead of the present 40, including three seats reserved for the Scheduled Castes.

On this new basis, 7,500 people will elect one representative to serve on the Council, subject to a ten per cent. variation on either side.

When the Council met at its adjourned Special Meeting, Sri S. Sanjeevaiah, President, presiding, the question of delimiting the constituencies was taken up in detail.

Moving the resolution, Sri T. Narasimha Iyengar, stressed the need for delimiting the constituencies on the new basis.

Sri Srikanta Sharma moved an amendment for having forty seats as at present including four reserved seats.

Sri Mir Noor Hussain supporting the amendment, complained that Government had not consulted the Council while effecting the changes introducing the multi-member constituencies.

President : I do not allow a discussion on an Act passed by the Legislature.

Sri Hussain: We will then dance to your tune!

The number of seats fixed by the Managing Committee is arbitrary.

President: It was unanimous.

Sri Hussain; No, Sir. We are doing away with eight seats now. I am afraid this may lead to unnatural process.

He further pointed out that the strength of the Council was 30 when the population of the City was 1,80,000. By 1961, it would be 3,00,000 and it was not logical to have only 32 Councillors.

Sri Narasimha Iyengar stated that the Managing Committee had suggested these changes after a careful study and the work would go on smoothly if the number of members was less. He appealed for the withdrawal of Sri Sharma's amendment.

Sri Govindiah said that more the number, the smoother would be the work.

When several members again referred to the wisdom of the Act itself, the President repeated that he would not allow any discussion on the merits or demerits of the Act.

Sri B. K. Ramakrishniah while agreeing that they could not discuss the Act, stated that they had a right to make passing reference to the Act.

A state of confusion prevailed when Sri M. K. Lingaiah (Con.) remarked that "Opposition members" should not talk without understanding," on a point raised by Sri Govindaiah.

At a stage, the President requested Sri Aziz Sait more than once to sit down. Sri Aziz Sait protested and ultimately sat down only on "prestige and right."

Sri Srikanta Sharma, stated that multi-member constituencies had already been tried and if brought into use again, each member would be responsible to a greater number of people, with the result his work would slacken at the Council. He questioned if there were any genuine disadvantages if the Council had 40 members.

The amendment was put to vote and was defeated. by 17 9 vote.

OPPOSITION WALK OUT

While discussions were going on Sri Srikantasarma suggested at about 12 o'clock for adjournment of the meeting to 4 p. m. as members could not sit continuously for long. The members of the other party did not agree to this. Sri B. K. Ramakrishnaiya remarked that the ruling party was always against any suggestion made by the opposition, and had not taken the opposition into consideration at all. Then all the 9 members of the Opposition walked out of the meeting. Within half an hour the meeting agreed for the redistribution of the Divisions, into nine each having 3 to 5 members.

Con.Constitution Amended

The All-India Congress Committee concluded its three-day meeting in New Delhi yesterday after approving official amendments to the Congress Constitution aimed at tightening up the organisation.

The amendments provide for indirect elections to the higher bodies of the Congress and functional representation on them for trade unionists, Kisan and youth workers.

The Working Committee of twenty-one members will, however, continue to be nominated by the Congress President.

Prime Minister Nehru intervening in the debate after a number of members had suggested that Congress Working Committee should be elected, warned against the system of proportional representation in any election.

He opposed the suggestion and said that these days there was a lot of talk about democracy. Every kind of thing was brought out in the name of democracy. Every kind of crime and stupidity and procession was undertaken in its name. He suggested that old members like himself need not be nominated on the Working Committee year after year. If they were dropped, he said, other people would be able to come in and shoulder responsibilities.

BREATH NEW LIFE INTO HEARTS OF CULTIVATORS

—GOVERNOR OF MYSORE

Coimbatore, 4

Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, Governor of Mysore, said here yesterday that it was urgent to realize that our agricultural economy could not be lifted to a higher plane of efficiency without breathing new life, and hope into the hearts of the actual cultivators. "Our education, be it agricultural or scientific, needs a little re-orientation to meet our newer requirements consequent on the attainment of Swarajya," he added.

Inaugurating the Golden Jubilee celebrations of the Agriculture College and laying the foundation of the Jubilee Block of the buildings, the Governor said that there had never been enough food in the world, and about one half of the world population had been subsisting at a level of food consumption which was not high enough to maintain normal health.

The importance of Indian agriculture arose not merely from the fact that it furnished means for the subsistence of one eighth of the human race, but also because of the fact that it provided new raw materials for India's as well as the world's industries, he said. "It is no longer a problem of providing cheap finance, irrigation facilities, marketing organization and other aids to the agriculturist, but rather one of re-orientating the whole economy right from the bottom."

Stressing the need for a new social philosophy which was needed where the relationship between the student and the agriculturist was regarded as sacred and inviolable, the Governor said that pioneers would have to venture into the unknown forests of chaos, hew new paths and rally all members of society to co-operate in a common structure in which man's potentialities and the benefits of scientific knowledge would have free play.

PRACTICE CO-EXISTENCE IN LINGUISTIC DOMAIN

MYSORE GOVERNOR'S PLEA

"We owe a certain duty to our mother-tongue; but this need not conflict with our duties to the regional and other languages of the country. With goodwill, understanding and a certain amount of brotherly give and take we can resolve many of the problems that confront us. The principle fo co-existence in which we, as Indians, whole-heartedly believe can well be practised in the linguistic domain too," observed Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, Governor of Mysore, replying to an address of welcome presented by the local Karnataka Association.

The Governor said that language was a precious heritage of humanity. It was one of the fow attainments which distinguish man from animal creation. But for language, civilization, as we know it, would not exist. Even day to day affairs of men could not be conducted without the aid of language. In the complex structure of the present day world the modern man was confronted with many languages and had necessarily to come to terms with at least two or three, if not more.

His Highness observed that it was perfectly legitimate that they (Kannadigas) should aspire to preserve and develop the great heritage of Kannada language and literature. But he was happy to know that the aims and objects of the Association were purely cultural and that there was no room in them for narrow regionalism or linguistic fanaticism.

Process Of Liberalisation In Russia

Mysore, 4

Sri M. S. Gurupadaswamy, P.S.P. leader and formerly Member of Parliament, who recently visited Russia and some other East European countries, told a Press conference on Tuesday that though in the post-Stalin era there had been liberalisation of restrictions on the people of the U.S.S.R., the policy of the United States towards her had to some extent resulted in the Russian Government's arresting of liberalisation at a certain stage.

The Russian people, he said, were politically kept in dark. People were so much preoccupied with their own business and cultural activities that they had little time to think of politics. If Khruschev and Bulganin were popular today, it was mainly due to the several reforms introduced by the former in recent years.

Sri Gurupadaswamy said he gained the impression that people were held in "fear complex" mainly because of the estrangement between Russia and the U. S. Government. If an atmosphere of peace were to be ushered in, he said, there would be further lessening of totalitarianism.

Dealing at length on the social and economic conditions, he said that because of the considerable imbalance in the ratio of men to women (2: 3½) she had to depend for her prosperity and progress more on women than on men. Government in that country in fact encouraged the growth of population and there were eight to nine million unmarried mothers without any social stigma attached to their status.

One striking feature of the Russian set-up was that full employment and social security was assured to each and everyone, he said.

Russia, he said, was not a land of "equality" as was commonly thought of, but a land of equal "opportunity." Opportunity was provided to everyone in accordance with his or her capacity by the State. The ratio of the earnings of the lowest to the highest was 1 to 14, and this had made the Socialist society mainly successful.

Other points referred to by him were: free medical aid for all; free education at all stages with stipends to nearly 80 per cent. of the students; and unfortunate prevalence of slums here and there.

Another striking feature, he said, was the very low incidence of crimes in Moscow, where for a population of 8.5 millions only seven murders occured last year, and even theft cases were far and few between.

NO REMOVAL OF BAN ON TRANSPORT OF CRACKERS

Prime Minister Nehru and Railway Minister Jagjivan Ram assured the Lok Sabha yesterday that all consignments of crackers booked from Sivakasi to any part of the country would be traced and examined en route.

The Lok Sabha was also told that there would be no relaxation of the ban on the transport of fire crackers by the railways even for Diwali this year, if by then the inquiry into recent cracker explosions were not completed.

GOVERNOR PLEADS FOR LEGAL EDUCATION FOR EVERY CITIZEN

Mysore, 7

"Law is now being increasingly entrusted to administrators and without a satisfactory legal education they will be unable to administer justice. The lawyer element is dwindling among politicians Every citizen requires some legal education to understand his rights and duties", observed Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, Governor of Mysore, yesterday here.

Laying the foundation stone of the local Sharadavilas Law College building, His Highness stressed the need for research in law which Law Colleges must organise and encourage.

Continuing he said that the study of law was of universal interest and it was only a University Law College that could organise it satisfactorily. Study of law formed one of the best means of liberal education. Modern administration had become predominantly legalistic and all statesmen, administrators and officials from top to bottom required a legal education. A course in law was one of the best means of improving the efficiency and sense of duty and sense of justice of Government servants.

The Governor pointed out that "Philosophy of Law is greater than Jurisprudence. It is the scientific study of higher principles of law which will not be different from the highest principles of Philosophy. Philosophy of Law will enlighten Jurisprudence and elevate legal research and collate law with the ultimate verities of life. It is in the atmosphere of an academic and research study of law that the study of Philosophy of Law can be promoted. Law Colleges must change the traditional methods of its study and encourge legal research in reference to all other branches of knowledge.'

The Governor, referring to the role of law after the attainment of Independence, stated that opportunities had come thick and fast upon the the people and along with opportunities there had also come responsibilities, which should serve as a stimulus for us to develop not only the craft of law but the science of law as well. Constitutional law was required for the development of our constitutional Government; public law was required for the right ordering of our international relations; administrative law was required for the proper conduct of the ever increasing body of relations between the Government and the governed in a democratic State. It, thus became imperative for us to build up high grade schools and colleges of law, capable of producing those who could cope not only with the routine demands of civil and criminal law but also with the constitutional, international and administrative demands imposed upon us by our newly won independence, he emphasised.

Paying glorious tributes to the cluster of the Sarada Vilas Educational Institutions, the Governor said that they represented not merely a seat of learning but also a centre of philanthropic social service. They exemplified one of the unique creations of India, namely, the Rishi ideal of coalescence of sagely and saintly work, he said.

Earlier the Principal of the College Sri T. S. Rajagopal Iyengar presented a report on the College and said that over a lakh of rupees would be invested on the building.

PLAN PROGRESS CHECKED BY MILITARY AID TO PAK

—NEHRU

Intiating a foreign affairs debate in the Rajya Sabha yesterday Prime Minister Nehru stated that he wanted the U. S. and other friendly countries concerned to realise that their policies of military alliances and military aid to Pakistan had added to India's financial burder and had thereby come in the way of the carrying out of the Second Plan.

The Prime Minister asserted that India would not forget facts in Kashmir, namely, continued invasion by Pakistan and aggression of Jammu and Kashmir territory, and the Kashmir issue "is not going to be treated on the basis of those facts and none another.

Referring to the problem of disarmament, Sri Nehru regretted that while the great Powers were talking about disarmament, limiting nuclear explosions, halting explosions, limiting or banning manufacture of such weapons, the tests and explosions and manufacture were going on unchecked.

He said that the question of Goa and India's relations with Pakistan, more specially the Kasmir issue, were questions which affected, directly or indirectly, the integrity and security of India. India, he said, would not tolerate any move for the setting up of any base, such as NATO, whatever the consequences.

Winding up the debate, Defence Minister Krishna Menon stated that the only issue before the United Nations was for Pakistan to fulfil a commitment, that is, to get out of Kashmir. Any commitments on the part of India would only arise after Pakistan had fulfilled her obligations, and "I am not committed to tell you what our commitments will be."

He said India had no intention of waging war, but he warned that if there were serious violations of India's air space so as to infringe effectively on our sovereignty, then they would meet with resistance.

He later told the Rajya Sabba that if a U. N. force were sent even to Pakistan-occupied Kashmir it would be treated as an unfriendly act towards India, and he did not think there was any nation which would like to contribute its forces to such a U N. force.

Other points referred to in the Prime Minister's speech were the "most explosive" situation in West Asia, military alliances, East.West relations and India's attitude towards Hungary.

At the end of the day's debate, the Lok Sabha gave its approval to the Government's foreign policy.

Teachers' Role In New India

Mysore, 11

Smt. Grace Tucker, State Deputy Minister for Education, said here yesterday that the days of a particular method of teaching which was to prepare the pupil to face the question-answer type of examinations were over, and with the dawn of Independence, it had become the task of the teacher to make the pupil think and to act.

The Deputy Minister was inaugurating the Evening Course of the B. Ed. Degree at the local Teachers' College. Thirty-three persons are undergoing training in teaching in the two-year evening course which has been started for the benifit of teachers in the City schools.

Smt. Grace Tucker said the problem of how to make the students think was before the trained as well as the untrained teachers. The teacher should always ask himself whether or not he has been successful in making the students think, if there should any progress in solving the problem. She was sure that it would be possible for them to bring about this desired change through the craft method of teaching.

Congratulating the institution on the success of its programme of Extension, the Minister said that these extension lectures would go a long way in allaying the fear of the uneducated rural class towards the educated people.

Continuing, she said the lot of teachers had been the same everywhere, and even in the richest countries of the West, the profession of teaching was not a paying one. Yet, they were making much progress in improving the condition of teachers in India.

The teacher, she said, had the responsibility of shaping the citizens of future India and if it was going to be a good India it would be to their credit. If it was going to be a bad India, it was still their responsibility.

NEED FOR REFORMATION IN THE SYSTEM OF JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION

Prime Minister Nehru has urged for reforms in the system of judicial administration in the country so as to eliminate delays and make the administration of justice effective and speedy.

Courts and judges should not function 'in ivory tower' and laws should be interpreted in a way which would bring out an understanding of the social forces of the day. The law, he added, should protect the citizen against the vagaries of the executive.

Inaugurating the conference of Law Ministers of States yesterday at Delhi he said that about 164,000 cases were pending before the High Courts and he doubted whether appointment of additional judges would solve the problem of arrears. He suggested investigation be undertaken in this respect.

The Prime Minister said that delay in administering justice was bad for a variety of reasons and it was due to delay that much of corruption took place. 'It was perfectly scandalous' the way poor people were harassed by constant postponement of cases in law courts. No country could carry on in this scandalous casual way. This was not the way that 'busy people should be tried by people of leisure', he observed. He suggested radical changes in the whole judicial administration.

Home Minister Pandit Pant who addressed the conference, said that the antiquated system of judicial administartion should be modernised and overhauled.

ECONOMIC FREEDOM SHOULD BE GUARDED

DHEBAR'S CALL

Mysore, 24

"In order to guard the economic freedom of the country and to build up the national ecnomy, it is absolutely essential that on one side there should be the increase in the production of food grains and on the other the willing to save more money on the part of the people", declared Sri U.N. Dhebar here yesterday.

Addressing a huge gathering at the Town Hall last night the Congress President emphasised the importance of the Gramdan movement and said that the Gramdan Conference held at Yelwal was unique type where the leaders of different idealogies met together and studied the common problem of the day--land and agreed to a certain principle, based on non-violence.

The foremost problem before the country was that of food and though more and more was grown, still the price was going up. The reasons for this were many, the increase in population by 50 lakhs every year, and the improvement in the purchasing capacity of the lower-grade people. The planners should have foreseen this. As the demand for food had grown the solvation of the land problem had become an urgent one. Unless the tiller of the soil became the owner of the land he cultivated, this food problem could not be solved. He pointed out that this can be brought in only through Gramdan.

Further he said that though the Government welcomed foreign aid, yet more value to freedom had been attached. If people cultivated the habit of saving whatever little possible by foregoing luxuries that would help country industrialise, he emphasised.

Sri Dhebar, referring to rioting at Ramnad districts and the Hindi campaign in Punjab said that they would only show the immaturity Immaturity and indepeiidence could never go together. Sectional, regional and communal interest and unity could not co-exist he warned.

Referring to the Communist Government in Kerala, the Congress President said that the Government was working constitutionally, and the Congress was acting only as constructive opposition.

Accepting that Congress had weaknesses Sri Dhebar challenged the Communists to admit their faults and weaknesses. 'Let the Communists change their basic principles by recognising truth and non-violence through which freedom was won.

Earlier Sri Sriman Naryan, Congress General Secretary made it clear that he had no personal hatred against anybody in the Communist Government in Kerala, but only with their idealogy. Critising the application of violent methods in solving the basic problems, Sri Narayan said that only through non-violent, peaceful, democratic approach the future of the nation could be built. If the basic methods were not recognised, that would lead to difficulties. Violent method might look good sometimes, but ultimately it was non-violence which would solve all conflicts, he said.

He also explained the significance of Gramdan.

Dhebar Inaugurates Exhibition

Mysore, 24

"The Dasasa festival—the Durbar, the Procession and the Exhibition, is not a normal festival. It is intermixed with our culture and it is an attraction not merely in the State, but also in the country. It has been made a festival by the Rulers of Mysore where the feeling of joy of the people is expressed," declared Sri U.N. Dhebar, the Congress President inaugurating the Dasara Exhibition this morning here.

'Just as an individual needed opportunity to express himself so also the community needed a media to exhibit its culture and the Dasara was the media for this." said Sri Dhebar.

Sri V. Venkatappa, Minister for Education presided.

Sri Dhebar continuing said 'I have rarely seen such a meeting of oneness anywhere-else in India that I have noticed in the Dasara Festivities here. It is a festival where all the people participate as a family in exhibiting their culture. Culture unites and never divides. Compartmental divison of culture shows colloeal ignorance. There may have been various shades of culture. But the inner-soul of culture is that of true love. Culture becomes the total expression of the total personality of the whole community as such", he emphasised.

Referring to the handicrafts of Mysore the Congress President, said that they were well-known throughout India. They were encouraged by the Rulers in the past to provide employment, to express creative efforts through handicrafts and to develop the consciousness of the people, he said.

The Exhibition, Sri Dhebar stated was a place where opportunity was given both to consumers and producers to come nearer and the people to express themselves their creative efforts.

India today was in a critical stage of her history and Dependence in any shape limited the growth of the nation's personality.

Sri Dhebar felt that there was a graver threat from within the country unless the national economy was established.

This was being made possible through dams, and projects the models of which an exhibited in the exhibition. So whatever was found in the exhibition that had a living connection with our freedom and liberty, he said.

Earlier Sri C. M. Poonacha, Industries Minister and Chairman of the Exhibition Committee welcomed the chief guest.

REDS SUPPORT GRAMDAN MOVEMENT

Mysore, 23

Kerala's Communist Chief Minister Sri Namboodiripad said here yesterday that the presence of Governments by different parties in different States in the country would compel the Congress to draw lessons from States run by other parties and vice versa.

Addressing a public meeting at the Town Hall maidan, Sri Namboodiripad referred to the Gramdan Parishad, in which he participated and said that his party recognised the Gramdan movement asan alternative to its own policy in regard to land problem and rural reorganisation.

The Chief Minister stated that he would not go into the possibilities of the Gramdan movement, but he would concede it as an alternative. The presence of different appoaches and the chance to draw the best from each one of them, he pointed out, would help them consolidate their national unity and take their country to prosperity.

Plea For Application of Science Through Non-Violence

Mysor, 23

'Science and violence cannot go together and if they do so, violence would destory not only science, but also the world. Hence only the application of science through non-violence would lead to prospesrity' declared Sri U.N. Dhebar here this morning.

Inaugurating the State Khadi and Village Industries Board in the absence of the Union President Dr. Rajendra Prasad, Sri Dhebar said that Khadi had a special significance unlike other mill-cloths. It was the symbol of freedom and a bond of uuity between the villages and urban areas. It was the duty of everyone to patronise Khadi, he said. He further said that Mysore had a very long background of village and small-scale industries and hence he felt sure that Khadi would prosper.

Sri S. Nijalingappa, Chief Minister, presided.

Earlier Sri Mohamad Ali, Minister for Small-scale Industries welcomed.

Dr. Rajendra Prasad expressing sorrow in a message for his inability to attend, hoped that Khadi and Village Industries would find a wider market and said that they had very important place in the village economy and hence they should not be neglected. It could be disregarded only at nation's peril, he pointed out.

Acharya Vinobha Bhave in his message said that the culture and civilization of India had been standing round Khadi and Village industries. The demand of the present day in the country was that this industry should be developed as an integral part of the village life like agriculture. 'Tomorrow if there be a world war,' opined Acharya Bhave 'the only way of saving the villages of India is that they should work like a composite family and become self-sufficient in the matter of agriculture, Khadi and Village Industries and also take to basic education which co-ordinates Gyana and Karma'. He felt that the people of Mysore would strengthen the industry by encouraging the same.

"BHOODAN AND GRAMDAN AIM AT GOOD OF ALL"

Mysore, 25

The world today was faced with all types of problems, conflicts between man and man, group and group, nation and nation, rich and poor, exploiters and the exploited and also colonialism and imperialism. For all these the only remedy was the message of Acharya Bhave which was a universal me sage and which aimed at the good of all and not good of individuals or a nation, stated Sri Jayaprakash Narayan here yesterday, addressing a public meeting.

When the principles behind Sarvodaya were aimed at the universal good of humanity, what justification could there be for any one to refuse to welcome these principles, he questioned.

Sri Narayan said that Bhoodan and Gramdan were the first steps leading to Sarvodaya. Equal opportunity for the development of the innate virtues of every one should be created and this movement was towards that direction. The movement was completely based on love and sympathy and hence only voluntary help in the form of Bhoodan and Sampattidan was accepted, he emphasised.

Speaking about Bhoodan work in Mysore, Sri Narayan said that very little work had been done here in the State and the Bombay Karnatak area was much better in this respect. Stating that the fauk was not of the people, he pointed out that the Bhoodan and Gramdan movement concerned the people of Mysore City as much as it concerned the people anywhere else. In fact it concerned every one in every country in the world. It had a universal message, he added.

Sri Narayan appealed to the people specially to the educated, to take interest in this movement of Bhoodan and Gramdan which was the practical application of "Sarvodaya" philosophy, and to acquaint themselves well. That was the duty and in fact obligation of every one, he said.

SARVODAYA-A SPIRITUAL AND SCIENTIFIC FORCE

Mysore, 26

If a global war broke out, India's Five year Plan, which entirely depended upon the imports and exports would be paralised. The prices of essential commodities would go up as a result of exports and imports becoming standstill. In that case the only movement that could save the villages of India was Sarvodaya, declared Acharya Vinoba Bhave here last evening.

Addressing his prayer-meeting near the Crawford Hall, Sri Bhave said that there had been some doubt in the minds of a few leaders on the spiritual force and scientific truth of Sarvodaya. These doubts were removed as a result of the Conference held recently at Yelwal. Now the movement had the solid support of leaders of different idealogies as the Sarvodaya movement was sound, both spiritually and scientifically, he said.

Sri Bhave comparing the reforms movement in Russia and China stated that the movement preached by the Chinese philosophers was non-violent, but lacked scientific test. On the other side the movement launched by Karl Marx was scientific, but was not non-violent. The only movement which was based on both non violent and scientific methods was Sarvodaya, he pointed out.

Speaking about the statement issued by the recent Gramdan Parishad Sri Vinobaji said that he considered it as the highest reward to the movement launched by him six and a half years ago.

Referring to the City of Mysore the Acharya stated that before coming to Mysore he had heard about its greatness as a cultural centre and when he entered the city he was happy to find that atmosphere. "I entered the land of Hanuman where I met the modern 'Valmiki', Poet K. V. Puttappa, who has produced the great epic Ramayana" he said.

Earlier the City Municipal Council presented a civic address to the Acharya. The President Sri S. Sanjeeviah presented a sandalwood book-stand, on behalf of the Council.

He entered India like a skleton, without flesh or blood, disabled even to speak continuously for a couple of minutes.

Two satyagrahis had died in prisons due to brutal beating and lack of medical care. A number of others had been ill for a long time with no treatment. Women prisoners were the most sufferers. He named the two satyagrahis who died at the jail as Mahadev Marathi and Namdev Prabhu. He also stated that one satyagrahi, who was released on medical advise had been so much beaten that his backbone had got fractured and he was unable to walk. Another had developed tuberculosis and a third kept in a solitary confiement in a cell after brutal beating.

The army, he said, had arranged a special flag salutation ceremony and all the prisoners had been dragged there to salute the Portuguese flag. In spite of severe beatings and other unhuman treatments, none surrendered and the ceremony had to be cancelled. In spite of all these, the sprit of the Satyagrahis was high, he added. RIFT BETWEEN PALACE AND GOVERNMENT ?

Mysore, 30

The dramatic announcement by the Palace of the cancellation of the Procession on the Vijayadasami Day came like a bomb-shell yesterday afternoon on the public of Mysore and on the visitors from several parts of the country when they were preparing themselves to feast their eyes on the pomp and pagentry of the procession. Businessmen and exhibitors in the Dasara Exhibition were shocked to hear the news, let alone the top-ranking Government officials.

From the wording of the notification issued by the Secretary to the Governor, one can easily presume that some rift seems to have arisen between the Maharaja and Government, especially in financial matters.

It may be recalled that the Maharaja, who had earlier decided not to celebrate these festivities, was requested by the Dasara Committee, appointed by the Government, to participate in the function as in the past. The Government had sanctioned Rs. 2 lakhs for these festivities.

Now, it is stated that when the Palace addressed the Government to meet the cost of celebrations including those inside the Palace, the Government stated that all the functions inside the Palace were private and that they were not prepared to meet the cost. This upset the whole programme and the Palace took the initiative to cancel the Procession.

Whatever differences might have crept in, wise counsel does not seem to have prevailed in taking this hasty decision at the last moment, when all arrangements for the procession were going ahead and thousands of people had began streaming in the City. The loss on account of this to everyone including the Government is really enormous besides the question prestige of the Government as well as the Maharaja.

Dasara Procession Cancelled

Mysore, 30

The news of the cancellation of the State Procession on the Vijaya Dashami day was announced yesterday here by the Secretary to the Governor.

A notification issed by theSecretary stated, "Since it has been decided by the Government of Mysore that the Dasara celebrations conducted in the Palace will be a private function, it has been graciously ordered that there will be no procession or parade on the Vijaya Dasami Day, Oct. 3, There will be only Shami Puja in the evening.

Rumours are already afloat that the Palace authorities would revoke their yesterday's orders and the procession held as scheduled. The Home Minister (who is also the Chairman of the Dasara Committee) who was here yesterday hurried to Bangalore as soon as he heard this announcement, to consult the Chief Minister and others. It is hoped that something tangable would come out by this evening.

Gramdan - A People's Programme

Mysore, 30

"Gramdan and Bhoodan movement is a national movement. It has the support of the country. Now, after the All-Party Conference, it has become a national programme," stated Acharya Vinoba Bhave yesterday addressing a Press Conference at Srirangapatna. Explaining this he said, 'so far I was doing the work and people were helping me, but from now on people will do the work and I will help them. Gramdan is now completely a people's programme," said the Acharya.

Sri Bhave referring to Shanti Sena said that it was being tried as an experiment in a small area. No separate unit would be formed for the Shanti Sena but the Bhoodan and Gramdan workers would be taken as the workers in the Sena, he pointed out.

He also affirmed that if the Government brought in any land reform it would not be opposed by him. "We neither consider it as a kind of help nor an impediment. Our movement is completely voluntary and changing of the heart of the people," he declared.

When asked if the Gramdan movement was used for their own purposes by the political parties Sri Bhave said "We receive the support of all the leaders and we never look into the motive behind their support. We have left it to the Government". He dismissed as 'unnecessary and unwarranted' any fear from political parties. He was sure that his movement would never fail as it was based on "Satyanishta and Prema."

To a question on the place of Bhoodan in the present set-up, Sri Bhave said Bhoodan was a process leading to Gramdan. Therefore Bhoodan would continue but the responisbility of future donations would be entrusted to Gramsabhas to be formed later. Only the responsibility of distributing 'Danapatra' in regard to the lands received so far would be borne by them. The Gram. Sabhas would be formed in the villages to serve all people, even those who had refused to give away their lands. Government at this stage could step in and legalise the arrangements made for establishing Gram-Swaraj, he said.

HINDI AS OFFICIAL LANGUAGE OF INDIA

C. R.s' VEHEMENT OPPOSITION

'Every State in India should have a right of veto before taking any decision to make Hindi the official language of the country,' stated Sri C. Rajagopalachari, former Governor-General of India.

Sri Rajaji, who is opposed to the imposition of Hindi as the official language,said at a meeting at Madras that Hindi programme was a difficult programme. Whatever might be the utility of learning Hindi, it was unjust and improper to make it the official language. If any change had to be made in regard to very important matters that go to the Government, Sri Rajaji said, that change should be agreed to not by the majority of the States but by all the States. That is each and every State should have a right of veto before any change had to be made.

Sri Rajagopalachari anyhow welcomed each State carrying on its administration in its own language, but to force Hindi on other people was objectionable.

MAHATMA GANDHI JAYANTHI CELEBRATIONS

The whole nation yesterday celebrated Mahatma Gandhi' Jayanthi. Thousands of people at Delhi including Prime Minister Nehru went to Rajghat and paid their homage to the Mahatma at his Samadhi.

The President Dr. Rajendra Prasad in a message on this occasion has called upon the countrymen to study Gandhiji's life and teaching and " imbibe sufficient inspiration from the Gandhi Jayanthi celebrations so as to get from his teachings true guidance in our individual, national, and international behaviour ".

The President said that a great seer gifted with unbounded human sympathy and almost prophetic vision as Mahatma Gandhi was, had set certain norms in nearly all the sphere of human behavour and activity. All that he said and believed was of significance not merely for the people of this land or for that matter of any single community or nation. The chief characteristic of Gandhiji's thought was that it transcended national limits and was of universal application.

The discovery of the atom and the hydrogen bombs and the invention of other weapons of destruction had put the world in a quandary. Are these weapons really to be used; if so to what advantage? Can humanity survive the use of these instruments of destruction? These questions had to be answered before man can be sure of his future. Dr. Rajendra Prasad said that in keeping with the traditional thought of this country. Gandhiji's idelogy of peace and non-violance afforded a practical way out of the difficulty.

It was our duty and privilege, the President added to profit from what Gandhiji had enjoined on us in various spheres of life. Mahatma Gandhi was an Indian and we are expected to appreciate him better. The outside life was likely for this reason to see him through our beliefs and actions, which undoubtly placed a responsibality on us.

The Minister was pre siding over the Health and Children's Day organised during the Dasara Festivities on Wednesday last.

The Minister said that there has been very little medical amenities in the parts Bombay and Hyderabad Karnatakas which joined the old Mysore. Colourful Jamboosavari

Mysore, Oct. 4

The ten-day festivities of the colourful Dasara came to an end last evening with the Maharaja going in the State Procession.

The Maharaja left the Palace at 4-10 in the evening after taking the salute from the "Sajje". As usual, the procession consisting of the Royal pharaphernalia of the elephants, camels, the Sardars, Durbaris, military, scouts, NCC, State and Palace officials and citizens with all insignias preceded the Royal elephant caparisoned with the Golden Howdah, in which set the Maharaja, clad in Royal robes. When the Maharaja took the salute, 21 guns heralded from the battery. The entire procession route of three miles was gaily decorated with welcome arches, flags and placards praying for the long life of the Maharaja. People in tens of thousands lined the route.

Another special attraction of the procession this time was the tableau depicting a scene of Rani Channamma of Kittoor on the horse, another tableau of Sala, the progenator of Hoysala dynasty, killing the tiger and the third one Goddess Chamundi slaining the demon Mahisasura and a number of others.

Fortunately there was no rain in the evening and there was evening twilight till the procession reached Bannimantap, at about 6-35. Though there were a few showers at 7, thay did not inconvenience the people much. A torch-light parade was held at the Bannimantap and the Maharaja took the salute. After religious ceremonies, he returned to Palace again on the elephant, with all colours. The return procession reached tbe Palace at about 11 in the night.

This time the Police had taken many extra measures to control the traffic, perhaps after their experience during the last Dasara, but the gathering of visitors was very much less to the disappointment of them.

Little Moon Launched by Soviet Russia

Prime Minister Nehru described the successful launching of the first artificial earth satellite by the Russians as a 'great scientific advancement'. 'But,' he said in his press interview in Japan, 'I cannot help thinking that the more we advance in the field of science, the less we seem to progress in the field of civilization'.

The satellite launched by the Russians on Friday last passed over India yesterday, over Calcutta four times, at 9-17 a.m., 1-37 p.m. 3-16 p.m., and 6.22 p.m. and once over Bombay at 9.35 a.m.

Radio stations and observatories in the country picked up the 'beep-beep-beep' signal from the artificial moon whenever it passed over India.

The satellite for the second day yesterday was believed to be transmitting radio pictures of the earth and other planets as wellas coded data. It is whirling around the world once in 96 minutes, It has streaked around the world over 30 times till now. It has covered more than 650,000 miles which MascowRadio pointed out was more than twice the distance from the earth to the moon.

The Soviet scientists are saying that this first satellite will not return to earth. The satellite has showed no sign of slackening its speed.

American Radio and Press have acknowledged that Russia has beaten the United States in in a race to be the first to launch the satellite.

The launching of the satellite by Russians has created great stir in the minds of the Americans. One Senator has suggested immediate inquiry in the field of research where, the Russians have overcome the Americans. Another has described this as a great move to supremacy from superiorty A third has characterised this as a great blow to the prestige of the United States of America and a major victory to Soviet Union in the field of science.

The Soviet earth satellite expert A. Blsgonravov has disclosed that the Soviet Union had a second 'moon' completely ready for launching. The present one was a test one. It could take pictures of earth and other planets and by magnifying them 400 times their original size. This satellite will have a scheduled flight duration of three-weeks.

Work For Nation's Unity

Mvsore, Oct. 7

Addressing the students at the Inter-Collegiate Youth Festival here at the Maharaja's College yesterday, Gen.K. M.Cariappa, former Chief of the Indian Army, appealed to the students to work for the unity of the country. It was the mothers and the teachers who build the country. For the building up of a strong nation, it was necessary that students should have education both mentally and physically, he said.

Referring to the participation of students in politics, Gen.Cariappa advised them to give it up and to give more importance to education. In the recent days the Hindu and Sikh feelings in North were working against the unity of the country like the Muslim League before partition. This was a dangerous trend. The need of the day was that every one should work for the good of the country forgetting his regional feeling, he pointed out.

Prof. C.D.Narasimhiah, Principal, Maharaja's College, presided.

The selected students here will be sent to Delhi on behalf of Mysore University to participate in the Inter-University Youth Festival which will be held in next month.

Inaugurating the festival, Dr. V. Subramanyan, Director of the Central Food Research Institute said that the presteige and reputation of the State of Mysore rested on the student-delegates who would participate the Youth Festival in Delhi and it was their duty to see that the heritage and good tradition of the State were kept up.

Prof. C. D. Narasimhiah, Principal, Maharaja's College, who presided deplored the lack of the opportunities for the students to exhibit their inherent artistics talents properly. He suggested the encouraging of more and more minor associations in the colleges guided by experienced and talented staff and to see that every student should be a member of one association or the other. Only then the University could send their students to participate in any Festival, either in Delhi or in London successfully, bringing full credit to the University and as well to the State, he added.

Earlier Sri B. Krishnan welcomed the students.

'MYSORE VANI'

We are in receipt of a copy of the first issue of the 'Mysore vani', published by the Department of Information of the Government of Mysore.

It is another venture of the State Government to publish a bi-monthly magazine in Kannada to cover the new Mysore State.

The issue contains many photographs taken during the recent visit of the President, Prime Minister and other leaders for All-Party Conference at Yelwal. The magazine also consists of the news items covering the State Ministers' visit to various places during their tour, the President's message to the people of Mysore during his recent visit and some articles.

A glaring mistake anyone could notice in the magazine is still calling the Governor of Mysore 'Rajapramukh', that too in an official publication.

INTERNATIONAL GANGESTERISM IN KASHMIR

Prime Minister Nehru, who is touring in Japan, said on Monday last, addressing a Press conference, that there was active international gangsterism in Kashmir and some of the great powers who talked about agression in other places were supporting it.

Mr. Nehru said that no matter what happened to India, she would not allow foreign troops, by whatever name they be called, on even an inch of Indian territory.

Giving what was regarded as the clearest possible indication that any Security Council resolution that ignored Pakistan's aggressive role in Kashmir would be unacceptable to India, he said "It does not matter what powers in the whole world support aggression, we will not accept it. I think it is shameful thing, the way some great powers have behaved."

He further said "In private we are told one thing, in public another attitude is adopted by some of the great powers. I have seldom come across more double standards than in this matter of Kashmir. Here is the barest and most flagrant case of aggression and of continuing aggression, and we are told, 'Oh, forget the past, forget that past whatever it is'. Well, well if you were prepared to forget the past, the history of the world would be really different from what it is now."

PRIME MINISTER IN HIROSHIMA

Pandit Nehru, who is in Japan, visited Hiroshima yesterday and pledged to devote himself to the ultimate abolition of all nuclear weapons. The only answer to the atom bomb, he said, was peace and compassion as symbolised by Lord Buddha.

"We must strive" he told the people of New Hiroshima city "towards the goal of abolition of nuclear devices and disarmament, and through mutual trust in each other we must realise one world".

Speaking from near the spot where the atom bomb fell 12 years ago Pandit Nehru said "Coming here I feel I have come on a pilgrimage to the spot which represents many things, not only to me but to men and women all over the world. It represents the end of an age and the beginning of another. It represents ultimate violence that can take place. It also represents hope and resurrection which have taken place", he said.

Pak. Aggression In Kashmir Should Cease

Sri V. K. Krishna Menon, India's Defence Minister, said before the United Nations Security Council, last night that arbitration was mainly a process of judicial settlement and could not be applied under international law to an issue like Kashmir involving vital interests of a country.

Sri Menon who was speaking on the resumed debate on Jarring report told the Council that the Jarring proposal for arbitration on Kashmir was a procedure out side the UNICIP resolution. "Once we enter into this proposal we would have the sovereignty of our country determined by arbitor who knew very little about it" he declared.

Further he said "We did not come here to ask the Council to decide who had title to Kashmir. We came here for reconciliation to get Pakistan aggression to cease. The Security Council is not competent to render juridical decision. Therefore India regarded the matter of arbitration as closed", he announced.

Sri Krishna Menon, referring to Jarring's report, said that the basic position was that India had been invaded by Pakistan. 'Our complaint is before the Council, until it is withdrawn, Pakistan still stands charged with aggression', he pointed out.

Pakistan had concealed facts, mislead the Security Council and was guilty of misstatements, he added.

The Minister commenting on the thin attendance at the second meeting of the newspaper proprietors held at Vidhana Soudha on Oct. 8 in connection with the implementation of the award, said he was distressed at the poor response. He told that he was not able to find any plausible or valid reasons for the absence of a large number of employers. 'It almost amounts to non-cooperation,' he added.

COLD RESPONSE FOR GRAMDAN MOVEMENT

VINOBAJI CHIDES MYSORE CONGRESS

Bangalore, Oct. 12

Acharya Vinoba Bhave chiding the leaders of the Congress groups in Mysore for coldshouldering the Gramdan movement called upon them either to oppose the movement or to work for it whole-heartedly.

Speaking at Bidadi yesterday, Sri Acharya said "I am walking through your State now for about two months and you should grant that it is not for any personal ends. Mine has been a national cause endorsed and taken over by national leaders of all parties. You cannot coldshoulder it after that. A man comes in all humanity to your doors with a programme unanimously sponsored by the leaders of the nation and you do almost nothing concrete about it. Better oppose it if you feel like it. Then I would have a chance to persuade you. But how can you remain so unmoved? Is there no trace of gentlemanly shame left in public life?', he asked.

If his mission failed, in the State, the Acharya said that it would not harm him. But all blame would be laid at the doors of those who failed to utilise an opportunity of reaching every heart and home with a message of love, because leaders were not able to get over their factional squabbles.

Naming the three factional groups in Mysore Congress, Sri Vinobaji said 'The Nijalingappa group, Channiah group, Hanumanthaiya group like the Vali group and Sugriva group of old, are wasting away their precious time and energy in such a period of crisis. It is high time they realise the futility of this and awake as modern Hanumans to unite their forces in the name of God, united into a happy team like the Vanarsena of Ramachandra.'

It they do so, he added, they would no doubt be instrumental in achieving the most unique non-violent revolution which right now is knocking at their doors.

PLEA FOR SAMYUKTA GRAMDAN

Bangalore, Oct. 15

Acharya Vinoba Bhave addressing a public meeting here last evening demanded from Kannadigas with the "love and humility" at his command not one or two Gramdans here and there, but Samyukta Gramdan. Under this Dan entire areas would shed' the sin the selfish ownership of mother earth", which enable 'us to extend our love to the entire world', he said.

The Acharya added that he would present the thesis of the Bhoodan movement comprehensively at today's prayer meeting.

Sri Bhave congratulating the people of Karnatak for achieving their objective of Samyukta Karnataka, called upon them to bring about real integration of their minds and hearts. In formulating of the Samyukta Karnataka,he saw the beginning of the end of the older order and that was why,he said, he was compelled to go out of the way to offer comments when he found some discord among the Karnataka leaders.

The Acharya continued that unity was the key to all the problems of the world. It had been India's contribution from time immemorial. Buddha's Karuna (compassion) had to be invoked today. The politics after the attainment of independence had become hot-bed of jealousies where 'you wash away the Punya of all the good deeds in the past.' 'Sacrifice and with it strength have found their strength now in the socio-economic field' and that was why he commanded them to go ahead to achieve the objective of Samyukta Viswa and nothing less than that, emphasised Acharya Bhave.

He expressed the fervent hope that Bangalore would be the centre for the spread of the Sarvodaya ideals in South India.

Acharya Vinoba Bhave entered Bangalore City yesterday at daybreak on his 'Padayatra'.

Ministry Making In Pakistan

Efforts of Mr. Iskandar Mirza, President of Pakistan, to form a new stable Ministry in the country following the resignation of Mr. Suhrawardy seem to have yielded no fruits as yet. No agreement has been reached between the several political parties to form all-party Government. Talks of the Muslim League Opposition to form a Ministry were totally a failure according to its leader Mr. Chundrigar. The Republican party outright rejected the League's proposal of the merger of the two parties to form a Government.

As a surprise in political circles the President invited the out-going Prime Minister Suhrawardy and had talks with him for over two hours. Poltiical observers believe that this meeting might be an attempt to secure understanding between the two.

According to present indications only two men are left in the field—Dr. Khan Sahib, Leader of the Republican Party and Mr. Hamidul Huq Choudhury, Leader of the Krishak Sramik Party.

A final decision is expected to be arrived at shortly and the name of the new Premier announced by the President in the course of the day.

Pak. Drafted India's Plan-

Bhave

Bangalore, Oct. 16

Acharya Vinoba Bhave, addressing his prayer, meeting here yesterday, said that nobody would lose anything in the event of Gramdan and the interests of the land-holders would be safe. Making on analogy that after Independence, the former rulers of States had merged their territories with the Indian Union, he said, their interests were being safeguarded. Some of those who were popular then were being loved by the people even now, he said.

Referring to the Yelwal Conference Acharya Bhave called upon the people to grasp the significance of the revolution in thought that emerged of the All-Party Conference there, on Gramdan. He said that when leaders of different political parties unanimously decided on this revolutionary step, the future course would not be difficult.

Sri Bhave pointing out the present picture of this move. ment said that after freedom the leaders who assumed power had to face many problems and it was once thought they had forgotten about the mission of Sarvodaya. Government drafted a plan for the development of the country which envisaged only industrialisation and development in other spheres and there was no mention of Sarvodaya.

This was because, he pointed out, India could not draft her own plan, it was Pakistan which did it. Because Pakistan increased her armed strength, India had to increase her defence expenditure, which meant that Pakistan shaped India's plan, although leaders of India wanted to serve the poor, cut the defence expenditure and follow the principle of non.violence. In Pakistan, there had been no elections for the past ten years. Five Ministries had come and gone. Pakistan had gone and surrendered itself to the United States. "Hence Pakistan planned for India and the United States for Pakistan. Then how could our Sarvodaya plan work? It must be carried only by the people themselves," he emphasised.

DEMOCRACY IN ITS TRUE PICTURE

Bangalore, Oct. 16

Unity Among Women Stressed

Mysore, Oct. 21

"Women should forget their petty jealousies, and quarrels, and unite together and work as a single body, not only to preserve their rights and privileges, but also to help grow the nation through plans," declared Smt. Lakshmi Menon addressing the delegates of the branch conference of State Women's Conference, held here at the Crawford Hall on Saturday.

Referring to the work of women's organisations, Smt. Menon said that these organisations were responsible for eliminating many discriminating classes in franchise and guaranteeing equal rights to them. But equality guaranteed in the constitution was only on paper and still many discriminations were shown in employing them, and also in educating them. Therefore, she cautioned, that if women in the country were not more vigilant and alert now they would lose their hard earned rights by their indifference and complacency.

The Minister said that the country was going through a crisis now and there was lack of sufficient money for implementing the Plan. The women here had a duty to help ease the crisis by contributing in large sums to the Small Savings Scheme.

Smt. Tripurasundarammanni, Maharani of Mysore, who presided, said that the ideals of Gandhiji were alive today in women of our land who were inspired by his spirit and message of service. All-India Women's Conference, she was sure, had proved to be an excellent organisation for spreading this message of service and social justice throughout the country. She added that importance of organisation like this conference in a welfare state dedicated to socialistic ideal needed no emphasis.

Earlier Smt. Kameswaramma Kuppaswamy in her welcome speech disclosed that the organisation would shortly take up a survey in Mysore City to find out the percentage and type of women who needed part-time employment.

More Attention For Development Of Malnad

Bangalore, Oct. 23

Chief Minister Sri Nijalingappa said here that there was shortage of rice in the State and yet large quantities went out of Mysore. In order to meet the rice deficit, the Chief Minister said, that large areas were being brought under cultivation.

Inaugurating the meeting of the State Development Council he stated that during the first year of the Second Plan period there had been phenomenal achievements in various fields, but unfortunately those achievements had not been up to the expectation.

The Chief Minister pointed out that the areas that now came under Mysore included some of the areas which were financially depleted. He assured that in spite of financial stringency, nothing would be done to stop the progress of the various undertakings in several fields.

Referring to the medium and minor irrigation schemes, Sri Nijalingappa said that it was necessary to provide for more irrigation schemes in parts of Chitaldrug, Tumkur and Kolar and parts of new State in Dharwar, Bijapur and other districts. He felt sure that within an year and a half it may be possible to find the required power. It was possible to have two more generating Stations on the Munirabad side.

It was proposed to establish fishery centres, cashewnut, cardomom, coffee and possibly tea plantations He also disclosed that a Committee was proposed to be constituted as a branch of the Council to look after the development of Malnad.

As regards industries, the Chief Minister said that sericulture industry occupied a very important place and there was scope for further expansion.

Finance Minister Sri T. Mariappa stressed the need for utmost economy and appealed to officers to have a realistic approach not only in formulating plans but also in finalising them, as the Central assistance to the Plan was only Rs. 14,73 crores instead of Rs. 20 crores originally promised. He also requested the officers to effect all possible economies but to give top priority for important schemes relating to food.

Agriculture Minister Sri H. S. Rudrappa speaking at the meeting urged the need for changing the mode of diet of the people as also the need to develop poultry, fishery, piggery, etc for this purpose.

Dr. Graham Again forKashmir Question

In the resumed debate on Kashmir, the British delegate Sir Pierson Dixon suggested in the Security Council yesterday that Dr. Frank Graham be asked again to take up the question of demilitarisation of Kashmir with India and Pakistan.

Sir Pearson argued that the Security Council in 1949 had attached greatest importance to demilitarisation and after ten years the 'compelling arguments' for making progress towards demilitarisation were stronger than even before. He said that he could not believe that there were 'insuperable obstacles to progress on the withdrawal of troops starting from the Pakistan side.'

Speaking about India's stand that the Security Council must give its verdict on her compliant of aggression against Pakistan and that Pakistan must be asked to vacate that aggression, Sir Pearson said that he did not feel it would contribute to progress if the Council were to go over the ground again on this subject. The U. S. delegate also supported the move of Sir Pierson.

NEHRU'S CALL TO YOUTH

Inaugurating the second All-India Convention of the Youth Congress at Lucknow yesterday Prime Minister Nehru called upon the youth of the country to learn discipline, self-restraint and dignity of labour as "they are to bear the brunt of the battle for reconstructing the edifice of a prosperous India in the near future".

He added that the linguistic quarrels, provincialism, casteism and narrowness of outlook would weaken the country. The youth were to protect themselves against such weaknesses and bring round the misguided elements with love. If people indulged in internecine quarrels and indiscipline, India would become weak and her independence would be in jeopardy, warned the Prime Minister.

Asking the youth to prepare themselves for the service of the country, he said "India is yours and I cannot give any better gift than this. You are to run the administration in any way you like but before making the claim of running the administration you are to discipline yourselves."

Vice-President Dr. Radhakrishuan also addressed the youths.

Promise To Better The Lot Of NGOs

Bangalore, Oct. 28

Chief Minister Sri S. Nijalingappa appealing to non-gazetted officers for their unstinted co-operation, enthusiasm and earnestness in building up the new State and the country, assured them to improve their service conditions within the financial limitations of the State.

Sri Nijalingappa, addressing the fifth Mysore Non-Gazetted Officer's Conference yesterday, said that the question before the Government now was to reduce the disparity in pay-scales between the employees in the two areas of old Mysore and Karnataka. New grades of pay had to be fixed and therefore, the Government ordered the preparation of inter-State Seniority lists of both gazetted and non-gazetted officers. A highly placed officer from the Centre would be going over here to scrutinise the lists, recommend on the seniority of officials. Though it was impossible to satisfy all, yet, he said, he was only hoping to an equitable solution.

Regarding their demand to reduce the disparity of scales between Centre and State employees, the Chief Minister said, that the State Government had urged upon the Centre to settle this issue equitably.

Sri Nijalingappa said the non-gazetted officers formed the basis in the administration and asked them to have the larger interest of the country always in their mind. He also advised them to "avoid unnecessary talk and keep your table clean" in a reference to the disposal of files.

Speaking about the position of paddy, Sri Nijalingappa said that if the paddy grown in the State was made available for consumption of the State and was not moved, the rice position would not be bad. LAND REFORMS IN STATE

Bangalore, Oct. 28

A comprehensive legislation of land and tenancy laws will be introduced in the December session of the State Legislative Assembly.

Indicating this at a Press-conference on Saturday, the Chief Minister said that before the Assembly met in the third week of December discussions of the recommendations of the Jatti Committee would be over. There was no difference of opinion in regard to conferring ownership rights on the tenants. The only question now was fixing the ceiling limit of landholdings.

Speaking about the Bhoodan movement the Chief Minister said that it was something which should be voluntary and should come out of one's conviction. His personal view, he said, was that the laws made by the Government to help Bhoodan would not be proper, because when Government interfered or took the initiative an element of force would set in.

Avoid Violence And Hatred

NEHRU

Prime Minister Nehru addressing the delegates to 19th International Red Cross Conference in Delhi yesterday stated that "the old approach of waiting for war to happen and then trying to mitigate its evils is hardly adequate today. The only approach that we can now make is an approach of tolerance, of avoidance of violence and hatred".

He added 'I venture to say to this distinguished audience, which more than any other group of people represents the touch of healing, the soothing touch, that, what the world required today more than anything else is this touch of healing, not only to the body but to the tortured mind of humanity.'

The Prime Minister said the type of work done by the great organisation (the Red Cross) was in tune 'with the spirit which we should like to encourage in ourselves.'

Dr. Rajendra Prasad inaugurating the Conference hoped that the deleberations would be inspired by the most practical realism and in the highest humanitarian traditions of the Red Cross.

He said that to a country like India nurtured on the ideals of truth and non-violence, propounded by its Rishis and Lord Buddha, preached by Emperor Asoka and practised by Mahatma Gandhi the Red Cross assumed "added significance".

★ Marshal Georgi Zhukov was reported to have been excluded from the ruling Presidium of the Soviet Communist Party. The decision to exclude Zhukov was taken at a meeting of the Soviet Communist Party Central Committee.

Rajgopalachari, former Governor-General and 34 other prominent leaders of Madras including Sri C.P. Ramaswamy Aiyar and Sri C. R. Srinivasan.

HINDI CHAUVINISM DEPLORED

Mr. Frank Anthony, M.P. and President of the All-India Anglo-Indian Association, has administered a stern warning that if Hindi 'chauvinism' continued it would mean the virtual disintegration of the country which might become a back number among world nations particularly in the scientific and technical fields.

Presiding over the Association's general body meeting at Hyderabad, Mr. Anthony asserted that English was an Indian language because it happened to be the language of a recognised Indian minority. If English was taken away there would be legislative choas because no Indian language was fit to take the place of English at the legislative, legal and administrative levels, he added. He felt that Hindi would cripple the students in the non-Hindi speaking areas. Mr. Anthony deplored the injection of political motives into this important issue which if wrongly tackled might result in irrepairable damage to the country.

The Ghost And The Public

Mysore, Oct. 30

The rumours of a ghost haunting near the Government House at the spot where the murder of a woman was reported recently, have spread in the whole city and many tales are being heard. Some pressmen who went round the reported area yesterday between 12 and 3 in the mid. night found nothing, except a donkey and a couple of dogs. The whole area surrounding the Government House looked all calm and quiet, but perhaps it was not the calmness of a haunted area. Later the Government House people also denied any instance of seeing either the ghost or the devil. All the talk one heard about this seem to be no more than a fiction. and the complaints of seeing or hearing this and that may be due to fear-psychology created among the people of the area.

It would be better, if the Police, make a detailed spot inspection with the authorities like the University Psychology experts in the area and remove the fear. among the people.

GOVERNOR PLEADS FOR MORE ATTENTION FOR HOUSING

Mysore, Oct. 31

"A clean and healthy house is an important element in the constitution of a happy home. If we make our nation an aggregate of hapyy homes we shall have gone far on the road to contentment and happiness and improve the outlook of our people as citizens of the world", declared the Governor Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar here this morning inaugurating the Second Conference of Housing Ministers at Cheluvamba Mansion.

The Governor stated that shelter like food had always been and would be a universal want. With the progress of civilization, the problem of housing, like that of food had been increasingly demanding scientific treatment and organised effort on the part of individual citizens, of government and latterly of international organisation.

The Governor said that good housing was in itself a powerful incentive to clean and temperate living and housing could not be considered as a remunerative programme in the usual sense. A certain irreducible minimnm in the matter of shelter is a necessity for every citizen, and in a welfare State like ours, every citizen had a right to it. "Whatever may be our other preoccupations or anxieties, we must devote our earnest attention to the task of housing our people. Housing has now come to occupy a place in the national economy hardly inferior to that of Health or Education", he added.

Pointing out that no financial provision could adequately meet the demands of a situation which was likely to deteriorate at a fearful rate, the Governor expressed that the only lasting solution would appear to be a rise in the national income by an increase of agricultural and industrial production which in turn would relieve the financial burden borne by the State on account of low income group housing schemes.

Sri K. C. Reddy, Union Minister for Works, Housing and Supply, presenting a detailed picture of the Housing schemes, stated that during the Second plan period the addition to urban houses was estimated at 3,06,000 from the allotment of Rs. 103 crores, from Government aid and the Central and State Governments were expected to build 769,000 houses and private sector 8,00,000 houses with an investment of Rs. 800 crores. The Minister also stressed the need to tackle the housing problem, on carrying out intensive research work, which was essential to achieve reduction in cost and improve the quality of work.

Detailing the Rural Housing Programme, the Minister said that it was based on the principle Aided-Self-Help, every village household being required to contribute 50 per cent of the cost. He also stated that each State Government would set up a Rural Housing Cell for controlling and guiding the programme. He hoped that the deleberations in the conference will be of great value and go a long way in helping to resolve the present difficulties.

The Minister also urged for most serious attention the for clearance of slums and to improve the quality of housing which he said at present was far from satisfactory.

Housing Ministers from all the States in the country, except Jammu and Kashmir are participating in the plenary session which began later.

FEES ENHANCED ONLY ONCE

STUDENTS' STRIKE NOT JUSTIFIED SAYS REGISTRAR

Mysore, Nov. 1

Sri P. Mallikarjunappa, Registrar, University of Mysore said in a Press Conference here last night that the University enhanced the tution fee in the colleges only once, just before the commencement of the colleges in June by nearly 30 per cent, and the impression gathered by the students that it had been further enhanced was incorrect.

He expressed surprise at the students resorting to strike after paying the enhanced fee for four months and stated that it was not justifiable.

The Registrar further said that the enhancement of tution and other fees was engaging the attention of the University for some time past and it took concrete shape only in June 1957. The necessity for the revision of scales of fees had been considered by the several University bodies in previous years and it was found imperative in order to implement several important schemes such as construction of new college buildings, equipping the college laboratories and workshops, revision of scales of pay of University teachers, providing better hostel facilities to students' upgrading the colleges, etc. Since the University had become an autonomous body from January. this year, it was desirable to augment its own resources by enhancing the tution and other fees by atleast 25 to 30 per cent, he added.

Comparing the figures of the enhanced scale of fees to other Universities in the country, he said, that this enhancement of fees was much lower than those of most other Universities. Besides, Sri Mallikarjunappa pointed out, it was only the Mysore University which was giving scholarships and other type of concessions to nearly 50 per cent of its students. Even, he claimed the support of Sri C. D. Deshmukh, Chariman of the University Grants Commission for the enhancement of the scale of fees by the University.

When asked about the reaction and the future course of action, by the University on the students' strike, the Registrar only said that he would appeal to the students to co-operate with the University considering all the points referred above.

NATIONAL INSTITUTE -- A MODERN TEMPLE

GOVERNOR'S TRIBUTES TO FOUNDERS

Mysore, Nov. 1

'Education is a public trust. Educating the country fully, that is, providing cultural, technological education is a gigantic task, needing prodigious energy and vast resources. Without public co-operation this great task cannot be done by Government. This has been realised by our people, as a number of educational institutions of different kinds started by private bodies show', observed Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, Governor of Mysore, here this morning.

Inaugurating the Founders Day celebrations of the National Institute of Engineering, he stated that in these days training in technical skills was a pre-requisite to social well-being and those who provided opportunities for such training were worthy of as much respect and gratitude as the builders of temples and churches. The Governor paid glorious tributes to the founders of the Institute for their work in starting and nurishing the Institute, not heeding to the physical strain involved and the mental fatigue entailed and thus dedicating their lives in the country's cause overcoming the initial disappointments and various hurdels in the form of stiff opposition and utter lack of help. This modern temple, the National Institute of Engineering, His Highness said, reared with such loving hands and care, would stand as a noble example for others in our country to follow.

The Governor further stated even now, inspite of the several technical institutions started by the Central Government at various places, there was dearth of technical personnel to man the many industrial and technological enterprises in the country. " Especially, now," he said "it is of the utmost importance for our country that more and more people should put their heads together, pool all the resources they can command, start, and also encourage, high technical and research institutions."

Earlier Sri N. Neelakantappa, Chairman of the Founders' day Celebrations Committee welcoming the guests presented a report on the Institute.

Sri A. R. Aprameya, Secretary, read the messages.

The Governor also unveiled the portraits of all the founders and presented mementos to them.

UTILISE LOCAL MATERIAL FOR NEW HOUSES

C.M,'S CALL TO ENGINEERS

Mysore, Nov. 4

'It is high time that we should give more attention to the problem of housing in villages, which somehow have not received the necessary share as the cities have,' emphasised Chief Minister Sri S. Nijalingappa inaugurating the Second Conference of the National Building Council here this morning at Cheluvamba Mansion.

Sri Nijalingappa stated that till now it was said that everything was done for stomach and clothing. But today housing had also joined with this. The labour, urban areas and the plantation labour had received the much attention. What was necessary today was to focus the attention on village housing and this should be dealt with on an all-India level, he said.

The Chief Minister felt that the standardisation had gone too far in the construction of houses. Though lot of material was available in villages, yet cement and iron were used for the construction, which necessiated foreign help. It was not necessary to construct costly buildings in the villages, Immediate attention should be given to see that the local available materials were used for construction of buildings. The Chief Minister pointed out that every one needed a ventilated house, where he could live healthily and he was not concerned with the material with which his house was built.

He hoped that with the co-operation of the Centre and States, better houses would be built and improve the conditions of housing in the country.

Sri A. K. Chanda, Union Deputy Minister for Housing addressing the members gave a report on the working of the Council and said that a tentative scheme for the housing census had been drawn up by the organisation. He called upon the engineers to pass on problems involving the use of some untried local materials and processes for study by the National Building Council, and suggested the appointment of liasion officers in various states.)

Sri K. C. Reddy Union Minister for Housing earlier welcoming pleaded for the construction of housing at a low cost by using cheap materials and emphasised the need for the extensive work and more research in the field of active building work.

Land To Political Sufferers

Mysore, Nov. 7

Chief Minister Sri Nijalingappa addressing Congress Workers at Gundalpet and Nanjangud yesterday stated that the policy of the Government, regarding the distribution of land to political sufferers during the Freedom struggle, was only to grant lands to those who would go and till and not others. He was on a tour in scarcity areas in Mysore District.

He said that in many parts of the State the people who received land were not making use of it properly. In some cases the gifted land had been sold. There were also instances where it had been given to the rich and influencial persons. So, in order to avoid this the Government would give land to only those who had actually suffered in the freedom struggle, land less Harijans and those who were in real need of help today.

For the sufferers in the cities, the Govenment might give financial aid to help them start small industries, he revealed.

Within a period of 5-6 months this question of distribution of land to the political sufferers would be settled, he said.

The Government proposed to bring tenancy laws before Legislature to fix the land ceiling. In old Mysore State for the past 54 years the records in the Revenue Department were not kept properly. So the whole thing was being set right, he added.

★ Seven financial and economic experts from United States will be arriving today on a six-week tour in India to study the conditions in which India's plans have been framed.

MORE HELP FOR SCARCITY AREAS ASSURED

Mysore, Nov. 7

Gundalpet Taluk seems to be the worst hit area in the scarcity affected parts in Mysore district, as a result of failure of rains. During the Chief Minister's visit to this taluk, yesterday, in almost all villages ryots presented memorandums and petitions praying for more help for relieving the acute scarcity conditions.

Sri Nijalingappa was on his second day tour in the scarcity areas.

Smt. Nagaratnamma, MLA presenting an address to the Chief Minister at Gundalpet explained that Ragi and Jola crops had completely failed and relief measures at least upto Rs. 2-3 lakhs had to be taken up immediately.

Replying the Chief Minister said that Government would take all possible steps to help them. Rs. one lakh had already been sanctioned, and if need be any amount would be given, he assured.

He said that the tank restoration work costing Rs. 34,000 would be sanctioned which would provide employment to the local people.

The Government, he said, would shortly sending experts to study and suggest ways and means to avoid distress conditions occuring often in these parts.

Speaking at Kabbhaili High School, he said that the Government were considering the question of handing over the work of preservation of roads to village panchayets.

Later the Chief Minister visited Chamarajnagar. Here also he assured the people all help for relief works. The Municipal Council presented an address to the Chief Minister requesting financial aid for water supply and drainage schemes and to take over the High School for Government management as they could not run it due to financial troubles. The Chief Minister suggested to increase their revenue by more taxation. He said that in a place having a population of 25,000 atleast Rs. 3 lakhs should be realised annually. He revealed that Government would henceforth give only loans to Municipalities and not grants. He also said that Government would take up stern action on those who were responsible for 'the construction of high school building, which was already in a delapitated condition within a course of five years.

Late in the night the Chief Minister returned to Mysore.

Transfer Of Talavadi Firka

Mysore, Nov. 7

Sri Nijalingappa, Chief Minister, said yesterday that the question of Talavadi Firka joining Mysore, which is now in Madras State, should not be referred to any Boundary Commission and should be transferred by mutural agreement and understanding with the Government of Madras. 'I know the whole question. It should be taken over by Mysore through persuation', he said.

The Chief Minister was speaking to the people at Chamarajnagar yesterday.

Regarding the Chamarajnagar Satyamangalam Railway line Sri Nijalingappa pointed out that at present it could not be taken up as Danade-Karwar line was very necessary for the transit of minerals, and hence it was given first priority by the Centre. Second priority was given to Hassan-Mangalore line as the Malnad area was to be improved immediately. So Chamrajnagar-Satyamangalam railway would be taken up only after these two, he said.

But arrangemnts would be made for running direct Government buses to Satyamangalam from Chamarajnagar and they would take up this matter with Madras Government, The buses would be run on a reciprocal basis, he revealed.

FOOD POSITION GRIM IN COUNTRY

Union Food Minister Sri A. P. Jain said at the Food and Agriculture Conference at Rome that India might have to eat from her food reserves early next year and that the difficulties were likely to last during the whole of 1958 and 'with our present reserves and the future imports under the two agreements with Burma and India, we are likely to be left with no foodgrains by the middle of 1958,' he added.

'Unless sufficient stocks for feeding the drought-affected population in the later half of 1958 are forthcoming, we shall be faced with a grim situation indeed', he said.

The Minister pointed out that this year in large areas of India had suffered from severe drought on account of failure of September-October rains. "The unexpected calamity is taxing all our energies and resources. Faced as we are with acute shortage of foreign exchange, the question of importing foodgrains from abroad becomes extremely difficult," he said.

★ The Central Government have suggested to the State Governments in non-Hindi areas for compulsory teaching of Hindi in schools.

RIGHT OF WORSHIP IN TEMPLES

The Constitution Bench of the Supreme Court yesterday dismissed an appeal by the Trustees of the Venkatarama Temple at Moolky Patch in South Kanara District questioning the right of worship in the temple by all classes and sections of Hindus.

The Madras High Court in its judgement on the suit had held that the temple was a denominational one but could also be a public institution and all classes of people were entitled to enter into the temple for worship. But the public were excluded for attending during certain ceremonies and occasions as that temple was founded for the benefit of the Gowda Saraswath Brahmin community.

The appellants had contended that if the temple was a denominational one they were entitled to exclude all Hindus other than Gowda Saraswath Brahmins from entering into it for worship. Dismissing the appeal the Supreme Court. upheld the decision of the Madras High Court.

It also approved the High Court's decision reserving the right of the appellants on certain occasions and dismissed a Mysore State appeal.

Red Cross Delegates Feted

Mysore. Nov. 11

The Mysore City Municipal Council entertained 'to tea' the delegates of the International Red Cross Conference yesterday who are on a short visit to the City.

Welcoming the delegates, the President Sri S. Sanjeevaiah said that the development of science and the efforts of man to conquer nature and the force and power blocks today appeared to place the world in rather a confused state of mind, so much so mankind was rather feeling perplexed of 'What shall we do now and what next.' It was one's earnestness that unless the whole truth about these forces was well established by the fact that they were all in the name of and for the benefit and welfare of the whole world, the task, with which the Red Cross Societies all the world over had been entrusted, would be felt all the more imperative, deserving of more care and attention than ever before. It was our desire, he said, that 'all of you who are real symbols of embodiment of peace and tranquility, would help to bring all that is good for a man.' He explained the social service work done by the Municipality in the field of childwelfare and maternity.

Mr. Kai J Warras of Finland, replying on behalf of delegates thanked the Council for their warm reception and said that throughout India the spirit of Red Cross was pervading and in this mission of mercy, he said, the co-operation of the peoples of the world was essential.

The Delegates visited this morning the K. R. Hospital, Gunamba Trust and some sightseeing places. After an interview with the Governor and launcheon with him at the Lalitha Mahal Palace, one batch left by plane for Delhi and another party left for Bangalore by car.

INDIA REJECTS 5-POWER RESOLUTION ON KASHMIR

Union Defence Minister Sri V. K. Krishna Menon announced in the Security Council that India was 'totally opposed' to the five-Power resolution tabled at the Council meeting on Saturday last to send Dr. Frank Graham, UN Representative for India and Pakistan to try to facilitate a solution on Kashmir Issue.

When the Council resumed its debate yesterday, Sri Krishna Menon strongly criticised the resolution. Noting Britain's part in preparing the draft, Sri Menon said this was the country 'which stole the country of India in the first instance by forgery.'

Ever since the Kashmir question had come before the Council, Sri Menon observed, Britain has taken a 'totally partisan attitude, giving no assistance for the protection and security of India which is as much their concern as it is ours.'

The Resolution, he said was out of order. It was not 'good manners to have tabled it before India had answered the calumnies of Pakistan,' he added.

Speaking about the sabotage and violence in Kashmir, Sri Menon said that Britain was encouraging them. All this was happening because Pakistan had behind it the mighty force of the United States, he observed.

He brought to the notice of the Security Council, reading a telegram he had received, the new arrests of saboteurs on the Jammu-Pakistan border during the week end.

The Council will meet again tomorrow for further debate.

EFFECTIVE CONTROL ON FOOD TRADE

ASOKA MEHTA COMMITTEE'S RECOMMENDATIONS

The Asoka Mehta Foodgrains Enquiry Committee has ruled out full decontrol and full control and suggested that controls should be a countervailing or regulatory rather than restrictive type.

The report of the Committee was prresented by the Union Food Minister to Parliament on Tuesday.

The main recommendations of the Committee include:

need for importing two to three millions tons of foodgrains per annum during the next few years;

all dealers in foodgrains to be licensed and there should be a reserve stock of two million tons maintained at strategic points besides buffer stocks;

the type of control should be to stablise prices of foodgrains as also other related commodities as far as practicable; rigid integration of the price structure was neither feasible nor desirable;

setting up of a 'Price Stabilisation Board', a high power authority for the formulation of the policy for price stabalisation in general and determining programmes from time to time; to resort for some form for compulsory procurement in case of rice so as to procure atleast six to seven lakhs tons of rice from surplus areas;

in the course of next three to four years the Foodgrains Stabilisation Board should be in a position to control a substantial position of the wholesale trade in the country;

a nation-wide campaign for family planning to check the high rate of increase in population;

in case of acute shortage, additional steps to be taken like complusory issue of wheat with rice, price-fixation, Government requisitioning of stocks and temporarily cordoning of big cities;

The Committee has noted that uncertainty about land reforms had effected production and has recommended that State Governments should proceed expeditiously with enacting necessary lagislation for land reforms and follow it up with effective implementation.

NEED FOR UNITY OF CULTURE, ART AND MUSIC

Dharamasthala, Nov. 22

'It is highly necessary that our people should realise the fundamental unity in our culture, fine arts and music and should broaden their outlook on them stated Kerala Governor Sri. Ramakrishna Rao, inaugurating the Music and Dance Festival here last evening, in conection with the Conference of All Religions.

Continuing Sri Rao said that our country was not only great in producing philosophy and religion, but also in the creation offine arts like music and drama. South India had a glorious epoc in the development of Karna. taka music, which was always associated with worship. Both music and dance had no particular language.They are appealing to all even to children and also to mammals like serpents. That being the case, oneness of the country could easily be achieved if they were developed and appreciated properly and if there was give and take between the States, he emphasised.

Former Chief Minister Sri Hanumunthaiah presiding said that holy places like Dharamasthala should be given lawful protection if they had to be run properly. He said that while bringing about land reforms' we are not seeing what we are destorying and what we are protecting' and this was a bad trend. The country should plan not to destroy the ancient traditions and customs, He also felt that our judicial system be modified so as to preserve and uplift the 'Dharma samaja' in the country.

Earlier Ratnavarma Heggade, MLA., presented addresses to the Chief guests.

DO YOW KNOW THIS?

About 19 lakh houses are expected to be built during the Second Five Year Plan period in the public and private sectors.

Rs. 105-crore provision in Plan for Government-aided urban housing will result in the construction of 3,06,000 units.

In addition, the Union, and State Governments will build about 7,69,000 houses for their own employees, for coal and mica mines and plantation workers.

The private sector is expected to put up 8,00,000 urban houses with an investment of about Rs. 800 crores.

The shortage of houses in 1951 was 25 lakhs and taking into account the new requirements, demolition and replacement of old houses, the shortage in 1961 is expected to be about 57 lakh units or twice as much as it was in 1951 when the First Plan started.

This estimate is based on a rise in urban population of about 206 lakh during 1951-61.

ABOLITION OF C. D. MINISTRY SUGGESTED

The postponement by three years of the target date for bringing the entire country under the National Extension Service has been suggested by the study team of the Community Development headed by Sri Balvantrai Mahta.

The Committee was appointed by the Government of India to study the working of the scheme and make recommendations.

Among other things the Committee has pointed out that Community Development was not achieved by merely increasing the number of blocks; the increase number should be accompanied by efficient work—"the attempt to cover the entire country with these development blocks within the Second Five Year Plan is unwise,' it has added. It has suggested continued programme of six years followed by another six year programme.

Constitution of village panchayats and delegating more powers and funds for the administration of villages i.e., decentralisation is one among of the major suggestions. One of the members of the Committee Sri B. G. Rao has suggested the abolition of the Union Ministry of Community Development. In a dissenting note he has stated that the Ministry is 'not merely unnecessary and wasteful but also likely to lead to lack of co-ordination and blurring in responsibility,'

Importance Of Vegetarian Food

Madras, Nov. 29

'It is not by mere coincidence that vegetarianism counts among its votaries some of the greatest men in the history of the world. Pythagoras, Plato and Aristotle who enlightened the classical world were vegetarians by conviction' observed Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, Governor of Mysore, declaring open yesterday at Madras the Exhibition organised in connection with the 15th World Vegetarian Congress.

His Highness said that from the remote times down to the present day there had been many philosophers, scientists, poets, artists and men of affairs who had been stauch vegetarians. 'There is a purity and peace about the vegetarian way of life that is supremely satisfying to the refined mind. The principle of ahimsa has been the basis of our religion and ethics from time immemorial', he added.

Speaking about the exhibition, the Governor said that this would be an eye-opener to those who still believed that there was more nutrition in meat than in fruits and vegetables. 'There is no scientific basis for the view that a man becomes stronger and healthier on a meat diet than on a vegetarian diet. It is now proved beyond doubt all the proteins, carbohydrates, fats, minerals and vitamins needed for a healthy life are found in the right proportion in an intelligently composed diet of vegetables, fruits, nuts and milk', he said.

Need For More Sugar Production

Mysore, Dec. 2

Governor Sri Jayachamarajawadiyar has stressed the need for developing sugar production through increased production of sugarcane and establisment of more sugar factories.

Inaugurating the 24th meeting of the Indian Central Sugarcane Committee here this morning, His Highness observed that the present food situation in the country, further, made it necessary to consider the question of developing sugarcane production in the country in a re-oriented way so that the yield per acre could be increased and a high crop yield may result without encroaching on the acreage under foodgrains. This called for improved technique and the use of chemical fertilisers.

The Governor pointed out as the country which gave sugacane to the world. India had the largest area under this crop and took the first place in the total production of sugarcane. But unfortunately we were far from holding the first place in crop production per acre. About 20 million agriculturists and workers were dependent on the sugar industry in India and hence there was necessity for development of this industry.

He pleaded for stabilization of the price of sugar at a more reasonable level. The Indian price, he said was nearly double the world price making it almost impossible to bring about a higher per capita consumption of sugar. The question had to be tackled by the producer as well as consumers points of view, he said.

He also suggested more and more research work in the field both at the farm and the factory and greater co-ordination of research in various parts of the country. The results of the research, he said, should properly be carried to the doors of the cultivators.

He hoped that the deliberations here would bring prosperity to the people who grew sugarcane and those who made sugar and gur out of it and bring sugar within the easy reach of the common man.

Earlier, the President of the CommitteeSriP.C. Puri welcomed. Union Deputy Agriculture Minister Sri M. V. Krishnappa also spoke.

Need For More Sugar Production

Mysore, Dec. 2

Governor Sri Jayachamarajawadiyar has stressed the need for developing sugar production through increased production of sugarcane and establisment of more sugar factories.

Inaugurating the 24th meeting of the Indian Central Sugarcane Committee here this morning, His Highness observed that the present food situation in the country, further, made it necessary to consider the question of developing sugarcane production in the country in a re-oriented way so that the yield per acre could be increased and a high crop yield may result without encroaching on the acreage under foodgrains. This called for improved technique and the use of chemical fertilisers.

The Governor pointed out as the country which gave sugacane to the world, India had the largest area under this crop and took the first place in the total production of sugarcane. But unfortunately we were far from holding the first place in crop production per acre. About 20 million agriculturists and workers were dependent on the sugar industry in India and hence there was necessity for development of this industry.

He pleaded for stabilization of the price of sugar at a more reasonable level. The Indian price, he said was nearly double the world price making it almost impossible to bring about a higher per capita consumption of sugar. The question had to be tackled by the producer as well as consumers points of view, he said.

He also suggested more and more research work in the field both at the farm and the factory and greater co-ordination of research in various parts of the country. The results of the research, he said, should properly be carried to the doors of the cultivators.

He hoped that the deliberations here would bring prosperity to the people who grew sugarcane and those who made sugar and gur out of it and bring sugar within the easy reach of the common man.

Earlier, the President of the CommitteeSriP.C. Puri welcomed. Union Deputy Agriculture Minister Sri M. V. Krishnappa also spoke.

NehruCondemns D. K. Activities

Prime Minister Nehru characterising the activities of the Dravida Kazhagam and the preachings of its leader 'for murder and burning of Indian Constitution and Flag' said that they were traitorous acts and declared that 'India will not tolerate it whatever happens'.

Speaking at a labour rally at Madras on Saturday last, Pandit Nehru, said 'The leader of the organisation has been preaching murder treason and preaching that the Constitution of India should be burnt and that the flag of India should be burnt. What is this that any man in India dare say so, any man however big. Have we become so low, so weak that we cannot deal with traitors in this country. It is a scandalous state of affairs. I can understand a mad man saying so. If he is a lunatic put him in the lunatic asylum. Is there any man, old or young anywhere who dare to challenge India's freedom, India's flag and India's Constitution? This is a treason and it should be treated as treason and nothing else.'

In his emotional speech, the Prime Minister declared that it was a challenge not to Madras City and State but to whole of India. India cannot tolerate this.

The Kazhagum members, he said, were only marching to perdiction, because 'this was a challenge and an insult to India's honour and India's honour is not such a poor thing to be put up with any insult wherever it might come from. Any tritorous acts against India will not be permitted by whomsoever it is. Even if the greatest power possessing hydrogen and atom bombs were to come up against us we will challege it. How them can we submit to any individual within India, he asked'.

INSULT TO NATIONAL FLAG AND CONSTITUTION--- UNFORGETTABLE OFFENCES

PRIME MINISTER'S SEVERE WARNING TO KAZHAGAMITES

Prime Minister Nehru declared yesterday at Tiruchi that the Kazhagam's insults to the National Flag and the National Constitution were 'unforgettable offences'. 'No civilised State can put up with these deliberate insults to the Flag and the Constitution'.

Amidst cheers, the Prime Minister said that Dravida Kazhagam leaders were welcome to 'pack up' and 'go from India to anywhere they want if they did not like our flag or our Constitution.'

Speaking with emotion, the Prime Minister added' No man has a place in India who insults the flag and the Constitution. Let it be clearly understood. It is not a question of politics or caste of the Madras State alone; It is a question of India's honour. India's honour is the pride of every Indian wherever he may be.'

The Prime Minister characterising the Dravida Kazhagam as one of the most primative among the primative tribes in India, said it was 'because it talks in a language which is a language unheard of in any civilised society. It is a language of murder and a language which either leads a person to jail or lunatic asylum because society cannot tolerate them.'

E. V. R. Not A Traitor

S. P. SECRETARY ON KAZHAGAM'S MOVE

Mysore, Dec. 13

The Socialist Party would disregard and disapprove the insult caused to the honour of the nation by burning National Flag and Constitution by the Dravida Kazhagam leaders in the State of Madras, but just because of that Sri Naicker could not be termed as a 'traitor', stated Sri Mulka Govinda Reddy, Secretary of the State Socialist Party, while speaking to the Pressmen here this morning.

He said that many people in the country were opposed to the certain principles in the Constitution and in fact the Socialist Party wanted a complete change in that. It was natural Kazhagam people too opposed the Constitution. This was all the result the frustration reached by the people in the South as a result of the domination of the North, he said.

When asked about the Socialist Party's reaction to the call of murder of Brahmins by the Kazhagamites, Sri Reddy stated that his party was totally opposed to violent methods. But certain points raised by Sri Naicker were correct though not his ments to achive them, felt Sri Reddy.

About the claim for an independent Tamil State, Sri Reddy pointed out that separate States had already been formed in the country on the linguistic basis and one could not oppose the sovereignty of the country, hence their claim could not be supported.

Later Sri Reddy reffering to the Socialist Conference to be held here revealed that the question of launching civil disobedience movement in the State from Jan. 26, if the 16 demands in their charter were not fulfilled by the Government would be discussed, besides Party matters.

Congress Rule Brings more Misery

Mysore, Dec. 14

The Socialist Party had determined to form a new society, where every one would have the right to live equally with others, to educate their children and where every one had equal opportunities to live happily, declared Sri Baleswara Daval, President of the All-India Hind Kisan Panchayat, while inaugurating the second annual Conference of the Socialist Party, State branch, here this morning.

He said that the Congress came again into power after the second elections and they aimed at the formation of a new society. If one studied the history of India he would come to know that the existence of two classes, rich and the poor had been there at all times and the Congress administration had in no way changed the pattern. Always its administration had close relation with the capitalists, and big people and never with the low class or the poor, he said.

The Socialists had putforth their 16 demands to uplift the hard working suffering people and to reduce the diparity thereby bringing a new pattern of Society. If the Government did not fulfill them, the Socialist Party would launch Satyagraha in this State also as was done in Uttar Pradesh, stated Sri Dayal.

Sri S. Shivappa, delivering his Presidential address, stated that Congress rule had brought in more misery than betterment to the people. Everyday new taxes were being imposed on the people and whatever the developments they had achieved they were only on papers. Everywhere there was dissatisfaction and unhappiness. The land problem was not solved. In the name of Bhoodan, and Gramdan the Congress was exploiting the people. The labour was unrest. There was too much of corruption and the party in power was trying its best to stick to power by any means. To remove all these the Socialist Party had chalked out 16 demands based on Gandhian principles of non violence and they were going to achieve them, he said.

Sri Mulka Govida Reddy presenting a report revealed that the party in the State had not grown in its strength as it should have and no achievement of worth the name had been done. He appealed for the continuation of the talks for the unification of the party with the Praja Socialist Party.

Earlier, Sri B. K. Gowdh, Reception Committee Chairman welcomed the guests and urged for the establisment of a Socialist Society.
